Bus Shelter Work Needs Double OK

Construction of the proposed bus shelter at the Orinda interchange within "a week or 10 days" hinges on a double approval by the Division of Highways District office in San Francisco.

Ramsay Underwood, chairman of the bus shelter committee, so informed a meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce Tuesday at the Willows.

He said that a letter from B. W. Booker, assistant state highway engineer informed the committee that the state is prevented by ordinance from using state funds for a bus shelter. So an application for an encroachment permit along with plans for the shelter must be submitted to Booker's office for approval.

THIS IS one of the two approvals that must be gained. The other involves the contractor, Watkin and Sibbald of San Anselmo, who is now working on the interchange bus turnout in the northeast cloverleaf just east of the bridge over the underpass.

The contractor has volunteered to donate some time and materials to construct the shelter in payment for using chamber of commerce-leased land behind the Orinda Theater for field office and storage purposes. The Division of Highways must approve the action since it would involve alteration of the contractor's progress schedule.

Underwood said that Architect Jack Buchter donated his services and drew up plans for the shelter. Its proposed design is in keeping with the best suburban architecture, said Underwood.

A LENGTH of 20 feet and a depth of 10 feet is thought to be adequate to shelter the various loads of commuters at the present time. The chamber is prepared to donate cash in excess of $600 toward the shelter's construction.

The bus stop ramp is now being built by Watkin and Sibbald, and in "about 10 days" workers will be pouring the sidewalk right in front of where the shelter will be, according to Underwood. He said this would be an ideal time for its erection.

Don-Pittsburg Football Game Will Be Played

Reinstatement of the previously canceled Acalanes-Pittsburg football game was voted this week by the Diablo Valley Athletic League Board of Managers. Tentative plans call for the game to be played next Friday afternoon, although a date was not immediately scheduled by the board.

(Erwin Mattson's "Sideline Slants" column elsewhere in this issue, expressing uncertainty as to whether the game would be played, was written before the Board of Managers action.)

It was explained this week that the game was reinstated because the board felt that the act of vandalism was not committed by students from either high school. League officials have been unable to learn the identity of the vandals.

EBMUD's Blair Burnson Dies

Blair I. Burnson, 43, 93 Tarry Lane, executive of the East Bay Municipal Utility District, died October 26 after a brief illness.

Funeral services were conducted Friday at the Albert Brown and Company chapel in Oakland. Interment was in Mountain View Cemetery.

BESIDES his widow, Evelyn, Burnson is survived by his mother, Mrs. Etta Burnson, and two sisters, Mrs. Rex Carr and Mrs. Fraser Merritt.

Burnson, who had served as executive assistant to the general manager of EBMUD since May, 1954, joined the Utility District as a civil engineer 20 years ago upon his graduation from the University of California. For five years prior to his last assignment he was supervising sanitary engineer for EBMUD.

Active in affairs of the water works industry, he was a member of the American Water Works Association, American Society of Civil Engineers, Federation of Sewage Works Association and the American Public Health Association.

EBMUD General Manager John W. McFarland described Burnson's death as a great personal loss as well as a blow to the administration of the Utility District. "He had a good record behind him," McFarland said, "and a brilliant future lay ahead of him. His untimely death is a shock to everyone at EBMUD."

Burnson finished a term as president of the East Oakland Rotary Club in June of this year. His successor, O. E. Hopfer, stated that he did not miss a meeting in eight years since joining the club in 1947, until his recent fatal illness. 'We admired Blair for his quiet, efficient administration of club affairs," Hopfer commented.

Rotarians to See Athletic Movie

"Achieve With Honor," a Helms Athletic Foundation Hall of Fame film, will be shown at Wednesday's meeting of the Orinda Rotary Club at the Willows. Herb Hauser will be program chairman.

Col. Bernard Kitt, chief of staff of the 49th Infantry Division of the California National Guard, spoke at last Wednesday's meeting on the inception, development and workings of the National Guard. He also gave a brief explanation of the Armed Forces Services Act. Bud Hauser was program chairman.

A film was shown at the October 26 meeting about safety devices in connection with the manufacture of automobiles. It was sponsored by the Ford Motor Company and issued by the Cornell University research bureau. Joe Duffel was program chairman.

Association Will Start Membership Drive on Monday

By JULIUS ROSENTHAL

The week-long annual membership drive of the Orinda Association will get under way Monday.

From then until November 15, volunteer canvassers will call on the more than 3000 Orinda homes, in an effort to sign up a huge community-wide membership for 1956.

The canvassers will work under 24 zone captains, and the entire drive will be under the supervision of T. D. Sanford, drive committee chairman.

Final plans were made at a drive committee meeting Tuesday night at Orinda School.

APPOINTED BY Sanford, the zone captains, listed with the areas they serve, are:

Ritchie R. Ward, Lower El Toyonal; Marge Scarich, Upper El Toyonal; Jack Saunders, Orinda Oaks; Don Anderson, Los Amigos and Monte Vista; Al Gregarson, Orinda Estates.

A. S. Hartanov, Don Miguel; Sterling Smith, Snug Harbor; Dr. K. J. Deissler, Haciendas and Oak Arbor; Gene Estes, Sleepy Hollow; Al Harmon, Upper Miner Road.

Bob Walpole, Charles Hill Road; Donald Tunnicliff, Las Vegas; Ameila Hickok, Lower Miner Road; Charles Lohse, Lower Camino Sobrante; Ted Sawyer, Oak Springs.

Tom Sibary, Moraga Estates, Northwood and Southwood Drives; Tom Stanley, Moraga Meadows; Laura Mallary, Overhill Road area; Bill Harsha, Glorietta; Joe Zablocki, Moraga Midlands and Encinas de Moraga.

Joseph Prince, Lost Valley; Marvin Baker, Moraga del Rey; Louis Bosa, Encinas de Moraga; George Stanton, Inland Valley-Ranchitas de Moraga.

AT TUESDAY NIGHT'S meeting, it was pointed out by Sanford and others that association dues are still $2 per year per family.

President Robert Boyle explained that additional funds, as provided for by the $4 membership fees voted by the association board last week, would be voluntary.

Boyle pointed out that, while voluntry contributions of $2 or more for association publications will be welcome, the only required payment for membership is the $2 annual dues per family.

"EXTREMELY enthusiastic" is Sanford's desription of the Tuesday night meeting.

"Zone captains are organizing their crews and will complete their drive preparations this weekend," Sanford stated.

"Cards bearing the names, addresses and phone numbers of all families residing in Orinda will be distributed to the volunteer workers.

"In the process of conducting the campaign, the workers will bring the card file up to date, with any necessary corrections."

FOLLOWING THE membership drive, election of five new directors for two-year terms will be held later this month.

The new directors, to take office at the beginning of 1956, will replace Boyle, Mrs. Stuart Henderson, Harold Rote, Joe Conley and John Ogden, whose terms are expiring.

However, Boyle will serve as a director-at-large next year, since he will be the immediate past president.

Fire Board Will Not Miss Turkey

Since the fourth Thursday of this month is Thanksgiving, the meeting of the Orinda Fire District Board of Commissioners will be held instead on November 17, Secretary Clarence Betz announced yesterday. The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in Fire Station No. 1 on Avenida de Orinda.

Moraga School Bond Action Urged

THE CARDS ARE ON THE TABLE as last-minute preparations are pushed for the Orinda Association's annual membership drive, which will get under way Monday. Sorting cards bearing names, addresses and phone number of Orinda families are, left to right, Robert Boyle, president; Paul Pollaczek, Civic Affairs Committee chairman; T. D. Sanford, membership drive committee chairman; Gerald F. Loughman, George Krusi (beind Loughman) and Marvin Baker.

Wilson Also Asks Trustees To Get Development Study

The largest group to attend a public meeting in Moraga in several years assembled in Moraga School Friday night to discuss future elementary schools. Principal speaker was B. O. Wilson, county superintendent of schools, who urged the school board to initiate action for the district to vote school bonds in excess of the present bonding capacity, and to authorize borrowing additional funds from the state.

He also urged that the school board immediately determine the overall plan for development of the area, which would include getting fundamental data from Utah Construction Company.

GUERNSEY Frazer and W. U. Barnes of Utah suggested a dinner meeting with company representatives for the purpose of getting immediate action on the professional study recommended by Wilson. They invited trustees of the Moraga and Canyon School Districts together with the president and one other member of the Moraga Valley Community Club.

Barnes and Frazer said that if the school districts could not pay the full cost of the survey, Utah could make up the difference.

Prior to Wilson's talk, Captain Harold Parker, president of the Moraga Valley Community Club, outlined the problems now facing the school district. He did so at the request of John Sanders, clerk of the school board, who was recovering from illness.

'LAST JUNE there were 43 children, two classrooms and two teachers, which is representative of conditions existing during the last quarter-century and more," said Parker.

'Now there are 60 children, three classrooms and three teachers. New homes under construction are being completed at a present rate of eight a month, which indicates that the single session capacity of the present school will be exceeded by the end of the present school year.

"Reliable forecasts indicate that there will be an increase of about 2500 students during the next five years. The big question: What can be done?"

Having stated the problem, Parker then introduced Wilson, who spoke at length about the critical situation which may soon develop in the Moraga Elementary School District.

HE REMARKED that although Moraga is now the third wealthiest school district in the county in terms of assessed valuation per child, presently $38,129, such a condition could not long exist if present development continued principally along residential lines.

Additional population is actually a liability for school tax purposes, because of the fact that there is a one to two-year lag between the arrival of the school child and the increase in tax receipts incident to the completion of his new home.

He continued with the statement that wealth exists where people work, and that even in expensive residential areas, the assessed valuation of residential property alone is too low to provide for adequate classrooms and school operating costs.

Were it not for financial aid from the state or other outside source, acceptable standards could not be maintained without a greatly increased property tax rate.

IN SUMMARIZING his remarks Wilson made it clear that, in order to make the best possible preparation for future school needs, the Moraga school board should immediately determine the overall plan for development of the area.

This would include getting fundamental data from Utah Construction Company, and contracting with qualified professionals such as Stanford Associates, for an immediate study of population trends and future school needs.

Meanwhile the school board should initiate action for the district to vote school bonds in excess of the present bonding capacity, and to authorize borrowing additional funds from the state, said Wilson.

He pointed out that although school bonds in excess of bonding capacity could not be sold now even if voted, the school board could sell additional bonds later, when the completion of new homes increases the bonding capacity.

Questions answered by Wilson brought out the possibilities of:

1. Making additions to the existing building now forty years old.
2. Building additional classrooms and present school grounds to the limit of funds now available.
3. Building or leasing temporary classrooms.
4. And making arrangements for the temporary transfer of excess students to neighboring uncrowded schools if any such could be found.

Diablo Speakers Group Installs Elected Officers

Diablo Toastmaster Club 598 was host to members, their wives and guests at the semi-annual ladies night and installation of officers recently in the main dining room, Las Palmas Hotel. A typical Toastmasters program plus an entertainment skit by members was presented at the two hour session.

Joe Williams of the board of directors, Toastmasters International, Santa Ana, was honored guest and installing officer for the local group.

The new officers installed are President Roger Jernigan, 1889 Del Monte Court; Educational Vice President Gilbert (Bill) Williamson of 5 Gary Way, Danville; Administartive Vice President Frank Curtis, 68 Moarga Highway, Orinda; Secretary David Swanberg, Concord; Treasurer John Newstrom, 9 Wood Court, and Sergeant-at-Arms Russ Lowry, 1418 Sunnybrook Road.

The following Toastmasters conducted the evening's program: Toastmaster John Saeman, Table Topics Chairman Jack Simon and Master Evaluator Robert Cahill. Speakers for the evening were Bill Williamson, Russ Lowry, Chuck Daniels and Frank Curtis.

State Senator Miller to Talk

"Sacramento: Fact and Fancy" will be the subject of a talk by State Senator George Miller Jr. Wednesday night in the Fellowship Hall of the Orinda Community Church.

The occasion is a potluck supper at 7 o'clock, jointly sponsored by the Democratic Women of Orinda and the Orinda Democratic Club.

Senator Miller during his ten years representing the Contra Costa County district in the California legislature has been active in committee work both as chairman and member.

He recently took part as Democratic representative in a Conference on Streamlining State Legislatures, held at the University of California. He will be introduced by the president of the Democratic Women of Orinda, Mrs. Ralph Reid.

Reservations are being handled by Mrs. Leonard Roth, CL 4-3389, and Mrs. Forest Hill, DR 6-8947. All interested persons in the area are welcome.

Proceeds from the potluck supper, for which there is a $1 fee, will be used to support a "TV Fund" to help pay for TV appearances by candidates in the 1956 elections.

An extra feature of the supper will be a "Silent Auction," in which a large assortment of attractive items ranging from cookies to jewelry will be sold for the highest written bids, according to Mrs. Sid Kroff and Mrs. Dorothy Barden, co-chairmen.

Dr. Blum to Talk On Salk Vaccine

Orinda mothers who still have questions about the Salk polio vaccine will have the opportunity to have those questions answered when Dr. Henrik L. Blum, County Health Officer, will speak at the next general meeting of the Orinda Mothers Club, it was announced yesterday by Mrs. Charles Erickson, vice-president and program chairman.

The November meeting, to be held on Tuesday, November 15, at 1:30 in the multi-use room of the Glorietta School, will be hostessed by mothers of the Sleepy Hollow School under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lloyd Hecathorn.

Also on the program agenda will be talks by James Lewis, principal of Miramonte High School and Mrs. Margo Bengston, health consultant for the Orinda School District.

Mrs. Erickson has requested mothers to send specific questions concerning the polio vaccine to the school office or to her home at 31 Donna Maria Way so that they can be prepared for presentation to Dr. Blum on his visit.

Quarantine of County Dogs Begins Monday; Child Hurt

All dogs in Contra Costa County will be quarantined Monday. This means confinement to the homes, or restraint at all times by a leash.

This is by an order to be issued by the County Health Department, according to Dr. H. L. Blum, health officer.

The edict follows an incident in Byron October 26, where a two year-old child was bitten by a skunk, which later was proved rabid. Byron is in eastern Contra Costa County.

THE CHILD IS NOW IN good condition in an Oakland hospital, but authorities didn't want to wait to declare this county a rabies endemic area, along with 25 others in California earlier cited.

A meeting was held Wednesday among veterinarians, who discussed the requirements and enforcements of a quarantine, possible later vaccination of dogs, and capture of strays.

The cooperation of the towns and cities in the county will be sought in a meeting today at 3 p.m., in the supervisors chambers in Martinez.

Walnut Creek will be represented by Mayor E. C. Counter, and perhaps others, while other communities will be represented by county officials. Present will be health officials, including Dr. Blum, and County Administrator Desmond M. Teeter.

Enforcement of the quarantine, required by law to last at least one year, will be the main topic along with cooperative measures.

DOG OWNERS WILL be required to keep their animals confined within their homes or fences, or have them on leash. Probably later on, a vaccination program will begin, with vaccinated dogs, properly identified with special tags, allowed to run free.

Similar measures are being taken in Alameda County which was declared endemic in an earlier list published last month, it was reported.

Dr. Blum today said, "We are not picking out the dogs for any other reason but that they are the most numerous carriers who are likely to come in contact with young children, and also adults.

"We want to nip this thing in the bud now, and permanently, and immediate action is the only way."

"The cooperation of the public, cities, and county will be needed to make it a success. Without it, hysteria accompanying the rabies problem will become a problem.

"THE TREATMENT for rabies is often painful and expensive. It is better to launch a preventative campaign," he added.

Dogs with rabies often do not show immediate symptoms, and perhaps weeks later become indolent, or in some cases, aggressive, with attempts to bite. Often the sick dog shows unusual affection, Blum advised.

Orindans Peruse Those Tax Bills

Orinda taxpayers were occupied this week with that intriguing activity known as studying county tax bills.

Depending on the code area in which the taxpayer is, tax rates per $1000 assessed valuation range from a low of $5.735 to a high of $7.499.

There might not be too much consolation in the fact — but some zealous scholars noted that the top rate in the ocunty is $9.016, in San Pablo code areas 1105 and 1108.

(However, that includes $1.23 as the city tax rate.)

Second highest rate in the county is $8.918 for Oakley code area 8203.

CENTRAL CONTRA Costa County's highest tax rate is $8.868, for Pleasant Hill code area 7899.

Orinda's high of $7.499 is for code area 8321; its low of $5.735 is for code area 8301.

Lafayette's high is $8.332; its low, $6,887.

Neither Orinda's nor Lafayette's low comes anywhere near the cozy $3.582 tax rate for Selby code area 9301, the county's lowest.

Pleasant Hill's lowest is $6.646.

IN WALNUT CREEK, the high is $7.365 and the low is $6.393.

Moraga has a high of $6.578 and a low of $5.129.

In Canyon, the situation is clear, one tax rate — $5.687.

Dads Will Wield Brushes, Hammer Thursday Night

Orinda Nursery School dads will be given an opportunity to demonstrate their usefulness as handymen Thursday evening at the school's annual "work night."

Once a year at the nursery school's quarters in the Orinda Community Church hard-working fathers are first fed and then turned loose with paint brushes, scrub brushes, hammers and nails for an evening's do - it - yourself program which will restore the school's equipment, grounds and classrooms to their original bright and shining condition.

Some special projects planned, according to Mrs. D. S. Manuel, maintenance chairman, are the construction of a stop-and-go sign to regulate tricycle traffic, shelves for the director's office, new covers for the drums, and a "new look" for the outdoor play house. Painting and cleaning of walls, tables, and other equipment will keep all hands busy, mothers as well as dads, throughout the evening.

Arrangements for the potluck supper are being made by Mrs. William Brobeck. Assisting her are Mesdames and Messrs. Kenneth Mirov, Roger Olsen, A. W. Clement, Forest Hill, Robert Milligan, Robert Brorsen, Harl Tyler, Fenn Wilson, Duncan Campbell, Vernon Louis and Robert Williams.

Supper will be served at 7 in the Fellowship Hall of the Community Church.

Nursery School will be closed next Friday, for Veteran's Day, to allow a full weekend for the newly painted equipment to dry.

Merchants Asked To Sweep Walks

The county cannot grant the Orinda Chamber of Commerce request for a street-sweeping machine because it "is not permitted to compete with private industry," President Ned de Laveaga told Tuesday's chamber meeting at the Willows.

Rather than assume the expense of providing their own machine, members decided that merchants could ease the refuse problem by sweeping their own sidewalks and gutters.

At the suggestion of Maynard Buehler, the chamber will write and ask the county to at least keep its own land clean.

Bird Shivers At Two Below!

Orinda's weatherbird shivered through a temperature two degrees below freezing early Monday morning.

Grumbling about a succession of cold nights, the bird is threatening to take his whole brood and just clear out. But the journey south is a long one to waddle.

Here are the week's high and low temperatures:

	High	Low
October 27	75	33
October 28	81	37
October 29	85	40
October 30	74	40
October 31	65	30

Crusade Residential Drive Monday

By NORM COLBY

More than a thousand volunteers in the Diablo Valley Crusade, part of a five-county effort, will swing into action Monday morning, when the three-week residential campaign for some $13,300 begins.

Completed this week was the business and industrial phase of the drive which partial returns indicate will bring more than the already-tabulated $11,494,88.

THE DIABLO VALLEY share in the United Bay Area Crusade was set at $37,300, while the five-county drive is for $10,691,640, to go for health, welfare and guidance agencies who would otherwise have to conduct separate drives.

Benefitting are more than 288 worthy organizations, which touch the lives of all of us.

The residential campaign begins with door to door solicitations Monday in Walnut Creek and the same day with telephone calls for appointments in Orinda, Lafayette and Danville.

The drive will begin Wednesday in Pleasant Hill, two days later, according to Residential Chairman Mrs. John Glover.

Other residential chairmen are Mesdames Claude McPhee of Walnut Creek, Robert Cuenin of Danville, with co-chairman Mrs. John Price, Norman Cunningham of Orinda and Harold Frederick of Lafayette, with Patty Channel.

DIABLO VALLEY CHAIRMAN Earl Cappel who conducted meetings in the communities last week to evaluate results of the business district campaign, said that the ranks will now swell to more than 1000 workers, whose job is to reach the $13,300 residential goal before the November 21 deadline, when all soliciations cease.

Stickers in the windows of homes indicate who has already contributed in the offices and stores.

Aid will be lended by community drive chairmen Ken Jensen of Lafayette, George Eberhart of Orinda, Gordon Moynahan of Walnut Creek, Al Kaplan of Danville and Don Burke of Pleasant Hill.

They will help advertise the Bay Area Crusade slogan, "The United Crusade is Your One Big Give."

In the community meetings it was announced that Orinda had exceeded its advance gifts total by $195, and the returns so far show that the Diablo Valley commerce and industry figure of $5,171 is about twice that raised at the same stage of the campaign last year.

Collections, broken down in departments, were noted as follows:

ADVANCE GIFTS, $2,595; district business, $1,929.50; commerce and industry, $5,171.41; education, $1,819.97.

In this area, organizations to receive funds from the overall drive include the Boy and Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls, Young Men's Christian Association, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, Concord Community Chest, Concord Community Welfare Fund, Concord Ministerial Fund, Herrick Memorial Hospital Clinics, Learn to Swim program.

Shadeland School for Cerebral Palsied Children, United Defense Fund, White Cane Week, National Federation of the Blind and related chapters.

Prankster Hurls Rock; Fractures Skull of Girl, 6

An otherwise relatively quiet Halloween in Walnut Creek was marred Tuesday evening, when six-year-old Charmain Thelander of 2562 Myra Dell Road was struck and seriously injured by an object thrown by a group of children.

They were playing a Halloween "game" at a subdivision site near Myra Dell Road, where rocks, chunks of concrete and stone were thrown at puddles, which splashed persons nearby.

Little Charmain pluckily walked home, but collapsed.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vergil H. Thelander, called a physician, and she was later taken to the Children's Hospital of the East Bay in Oakland, where she is recovering from a fractured skull.

Alert olice work, and constructive efforts of parents were credited with the overall peaceful night for witches and goblins.

Several boys in cars were stopped by officers and relieved of water-filled balloons and ready-for-use seltzer bottles.

Sheriff's deputies also collected several gangs of boys equipped with firecrackers and other devices.

New Miramonte Club Chooses Officers

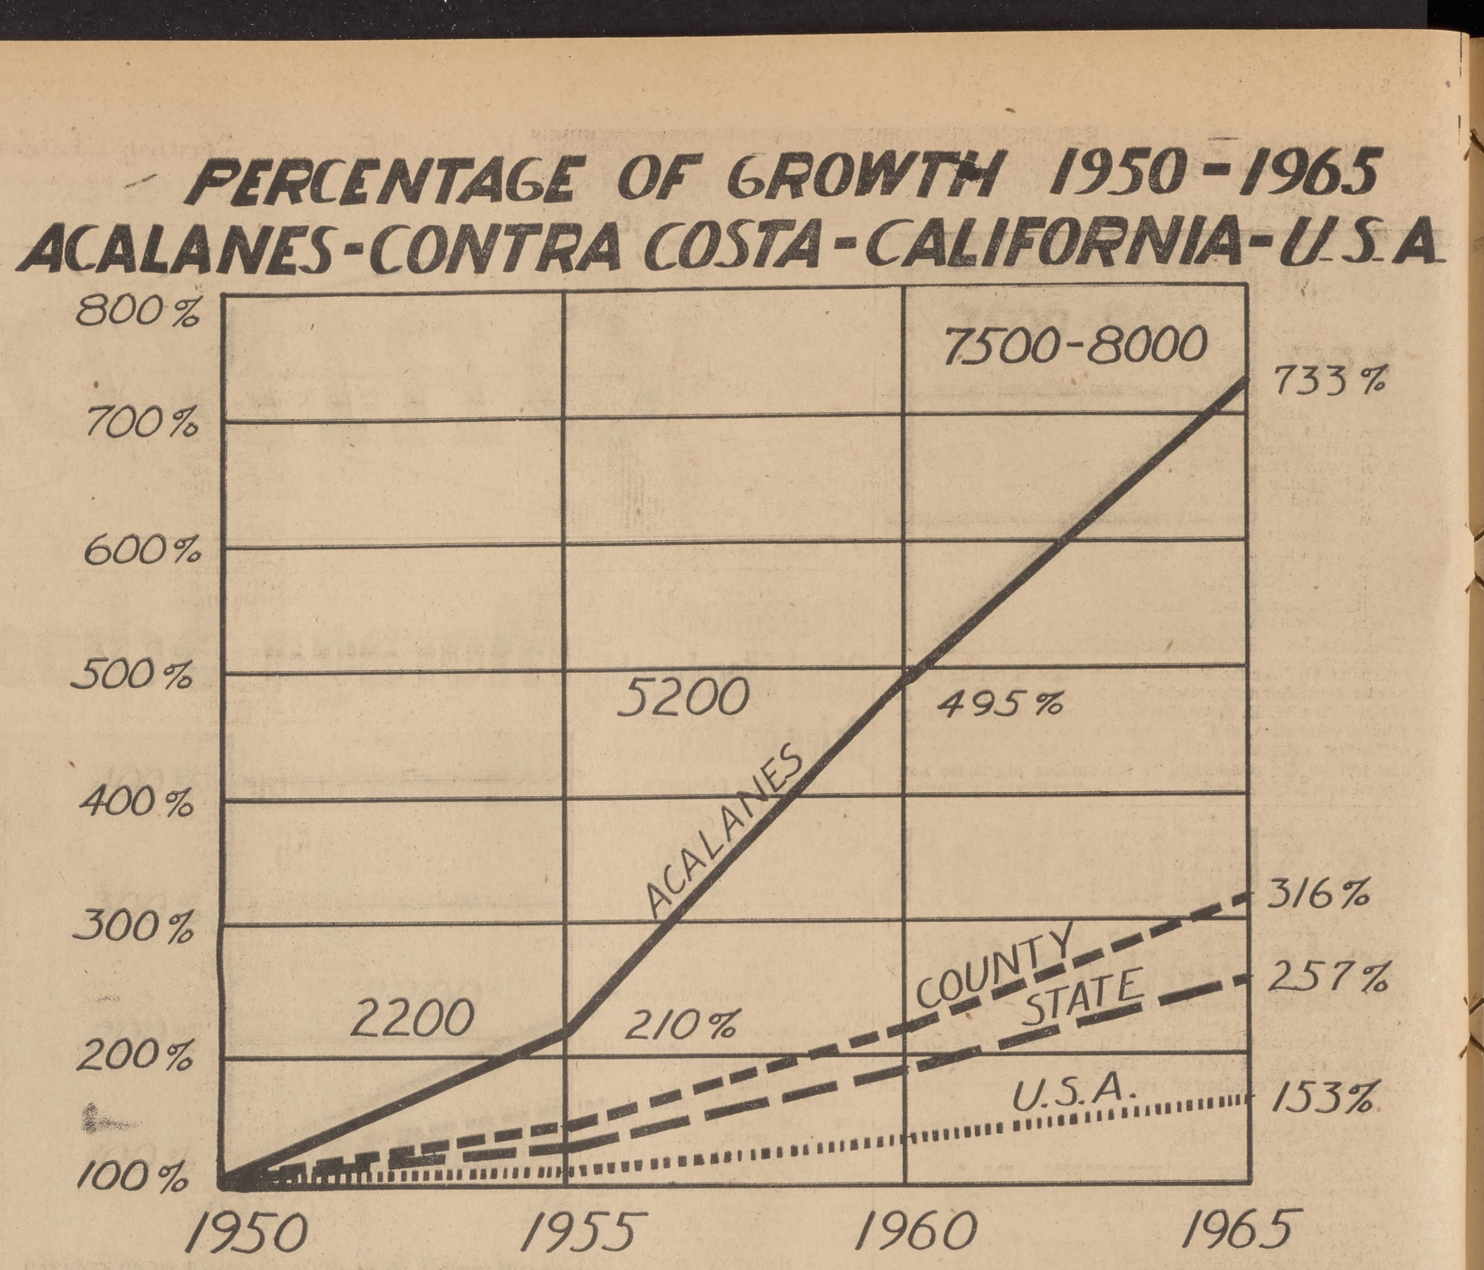
As a result of an election held recently, the officers for the newly formed Stage Crew-Audio Visual Club at Miramonte High School were chosen. Martin Smith was elected as crew chief, and Dick Glass and Peter Talfer were named to the positions of assist- and crew chief for stage.

Other members of the organization are Jack Doty, Roger Christner, Mark Cathings, Cebe Wallace, Peter Wilder and Harold Faulkner.

The organization performs two functions on the Miramonte campus—providing trained crews to operate the stage installations in the gym, and providing projectionists for the showing of educational movies and slide films in various subject areas.

Visit Pebble Beach

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Locke of 337 Camino Sobrante recently spent a few days at Del Monte Lodge, Pebble Beach.



PARENTS ON the Parents Committee for the Acalanes High School District Bond Proposal this week emphasized the need for passage November 22 of the high school district's request for approval of a $3,250,000 bond issue to provide money to build classrooms for rising enrollments. Parents for the bond proposal point out that if the national, state and county enrollment growths are labeled "critical" by everyone from President Eisenhower to county officials, the growth problem faced by the Acalanes High School District is even a more serious problem. In this chart the committee compares the rate of enrollment growth for the Acalanes District against estimated growth rates, percentage-wise, in Contra Costa County, the state and the nation. The national rate of growth is represented by the lower dotted line. The state enrollment rate of growth is representd by the series of long dashes, second line rom the bottom. The county rate of growth is depicted by the short dashes, third line from the bottom. The Acalanes District enrollment picture from 1950 to 1965 is shown by the top bold line and registers a growth of 733 per cent. Parent committeemen point out that the bulk of students represented in the Acalanes district growth line are already attending local elementary schools. High school authorities have warned that failure to provide the money to construct classrooms over the next five years, as requested in the coming bond election, will result in high school double sessions. According to parent spokesmen, the chart figures are based on estimates by county education office personnel, Acalanes District enrollment predictions by a Stanford study group and figures released by state and national offices.

Scout Salute

Explorer Post

Practically every member of Explorer Post 300 advanced in rank October 12 at a post of honor held at the scout house. There were 96 merit badges presented, and three boys became life scouts, two became star scouts, and two completed Eagle requirements.

On October 22 a barbecue and beach party for members of the post and their girl friends was held at Stinson Beach. A dance followed back at the scout house.

Tom Hannan, senior crew leader, and Bob Johnson were up before the District Eagle Board of Review October 22 at Las Lomas.

The annual post dinner at which pictures of the summer trip are usually shown will be held on Monday at 6:30 at Orinda Community Church.

Glorietta Girls

Girl Scouts and Brownies of Glorietta School opened the October meeting of the Orinda Mothers Club by presenting the colors and repeating the Girl Scout and Brownie promises.

Sixth grade Girl Scouts were represented by Susan Pollaczek, Kathy Beconcini and Jeanne Finley. Fifth grade Girl Scouts were represented by Susanne Harrer, Sally Law and Wendy Minor, and the fourth grade Brownies by Nancy Peacock, Marcia Montgomery and Sheldon Lawrence.

Brownie 179

Brownie Troop 179 under the leadership of Mrs. Allen Ayres has completed Halloween "noise-makers" for the children at Weimar Santorium. Ellen Goldsmith, Carol Meyer and Anne White of Troop 179 have been exchanging letters with Linda Apodoca, Patricia Roper and Barbara McBride, patients at the Weimar Sanitorium.

Dinner Honors Visiting Dentist

Among the many Orindans who entertained houseguests during the American Dental Association Convention in San Francisco recently was Mrs. George Hickok of El Toyonal Road.

Mrs. Hickok's brother, Dr. George Dinham of Duluth Minn., and Mrs. Dinham, were honored at a dinner party. Dr. Dinham is the newly-elected chairman of the Orothodontics Section of the American Dental Association. He is a fellow in the American College of Dentistry and a member of the State Board of Dental Examiners of Minnesota.

Dr. and Mrs. Dinham were also entertained at luncheon by Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Farrar. Mrs. Farrar is his niece.

Brownie 307

New Brownie Troop 307 has been organized under the leadership of Mrs. E. B. Campbell and Mrs. Philip S. Muschied, co-leader.

Members of the troop are Susan Harlander, Karen Muscheid, Deanne Pierre, Patricia Williams, Barbara Glascock, Peg Creighton, Kathy Burke, Connie Harska, Gail Campbell and Patty Necodoma.

Investment exercises were held Wednesday, October 26, at the home of Mrs. Robert D. Creighton, 10 Martha Road. Troop 101 under the leadership of Mrs. Creighton participated in the ceremony. Movies were taken and refreshments served to attending mothers.

Brownie 303

Brownie Troop 303 held its investiture recently. Mrs. Edward Walsh is leader, and Mrs. David Coker, co-leader.

Troop members include Barbara Canfield, Cathy Chase, Nancy Coker, Sandra LaRue, Karen Mitchell, Marta Morgenson, Marjalyn Singer, Connie Spangler, Sandace Stanley, Ann Walker, Ann Walsh and Carolyn Young.

Suburbia Scribblings

Church could have looked like slides

IF YOU'VE WONDERED WHAT ROCK 'N ROLL was all about—Now you know! We certainly got shook up, didn't we? The PFers, meeting at church, were listening to Mike LAURENSON and Ronnie HARTSOUGH describe the film slides taken on their summer sojourn in Germany when Shaboom! The quake coincided w/the showing of the slides of the bombing ruins and the PFers were PFlabbergasted!

All that, of course, was on the evening of Sunday, October 23. One sleep-eyed hubby, Monday ayem, opened the medicine closet and was barraged by asstd. bottles and jars which crashed into the basin below! A percolator that came to a precarious perch during Sun. nite's seismograph's waverings, came down hard on the head of an early-morning matron! Others returned home late from wknd. travels to find their furniture moved around a bit, picture hanging askew, broken flower pots littering the patio and simply wondered why till they found out on Monday.

EVERYONE GOT A TERRIFIC JOLT out of the costumes that turned up at the Oct. 22 party given by Fran and Dale McBANE in their new home on Normandy Lane . . . Jane and Bill COURTRIGHT in Gay 90 garb came w/the Bob LYMANS . . . A fetching pair, J. D. and Nancy VAN DYNE who turned up (he!) as a Xmas tree, all lit-up, and (she!) as O' Santa himself! Another turnabout-twosome, Peter and Bebe ENGLISH, he costumed as an angelic Angel, she dressed as the Satanish Devil!

On arrival of Jack and Bobby RIESER in a cumbersome crepe-paper costume wearing head-discs w/a 2½ ft. diameter, everyone amazingly queried "WHO DROVE?" The duo were rigged up most originally as "showers," the hshld. kind not the April variety! Costume prize to the Jack BERARDS, he moustached and she sporting spit-curls and a big hairbow looking like complete anachronisms in bathing suits of another era!

The McBanes' houseguests from Southern Cal. Dr. and Mrs. Robert THOMPSON chiding the Cal-rooters . . . Rev. A. Lucas Named Vicar At St. Stephen's

The Bishop's Committee of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda has unanimously endorsed the appointment of the Rev. Albert Lucas as permanent vicar for the Orinda mission.

On the recommendation of the Rt. Rev. Karl Morgan Block, bishop of the Diocese of California, Mr. Lucas visited Orinda for an interview with all members of the Bishop's Committee on October 25. Announcement was made at Sunday's services by Senior Warden Arthur Johnson.

Mr. Lucas is at the present time Episcopal clergyman at Primeville, Ore. A graduate of the Philadelphia Divinity School, following studies at the University of Pennsylvania, he was active in intercollegiate sports and campus extracurricular activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas, together with their two small children, will move to St. Stephen's vicarage the first week of December and will assume church duties on December 11.

Bishop Block will provide guest preachers for the Orinda mission during the interim. Dr. Frederick Schilling, professor at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, has conducted all six services at St. Stephen's for the two Sundays following the departure of the Reverend Charles M. Hill, who has since assumed ministerial duties at Christ Church in Las Vegas, Nev.

Taxpayers Pick New Directors; Consult County

Four new directors and five incumbents were elected to the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association in a recent meeting.

NEWCOMERS ARE Lawrence Wallace of Lafayette, a realtor and past president of the County Real Estate Board, V. A. Fink of Nichols, Philip Bancroft Jr., of Concord and G. L. Loftus of Antioch.

Committee chairmen are as follows: Alan Johnston, finance; N. C. Ross, planning; V. A. Fink, budget; William Hanson, government; Frank Cayting, education.

The Government Committee will consult the County Fire Chief's Association and Fire Commissioners' Association on the history and comparative costs for insurance ratings, personnel and other matters peculiar to fire districts.

THIS IS ON advice of the County Board of Supervisors, which received a report by the committee recently recommending that the supervisors engage a professional consulting firm to study the technical aspects of county fire protection, and to suggest means of improving its efficiency and economy.

Bruce Howard of Orinda was installed as new president of the association in the annual membership meeting held recently at the Orinda Willows. He has been a member of the board of directors for two years.

SWEEPSTAKES WINNERS in the big Chrysanthemum Show held at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center Saturday and Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Frank Pereira is Sheriff's Aide

Frank E. Pereira Jr., 33, of Martinez, was appointed last week as confidential assistant to Sheriff Harry Brown, it has been announced.

The post was created only a few days earlier by the County Board of Supervisors on request of Brown, who said he needed more help. The pay is $500 per month, and not subject to civil service for six months, when it will then be open for all persons taking a civil service examination, including Pereira.

The new appointee is a past president of the Alameda Contra Costa Cattlemen's Association.

School Managers To Meet Tuesday

Administrators and business managers of Contra Costa County school districts are scheduled to hear a discussion of Social Security and its application to school employees Tuesday afternoon in the Martinez Junior High School cafeteria.

Assistant County Superintendent Harold De Fraga said the speaker will be Earl W. Chapman, executive and actuary of the California State Employees Retirement System, Sacramento.

Chapman will emphasize the new category of state employees coming under Social Security for the first time.

The meeting will begin at 1:30 p.m. De Fraga said that other business will include a committee report and recommendations on policy regarding the new pregnancy leave for teachers as prescribed by legislation.

Women Planners Visit San Jose On Study Trip

Members of the Contra Costa Women's Planning Council traveled to San Jose recently where they were guests of the Santa Clara County Planning Commission and staff for observation of commission procedures and projects. Special attention was given to the Santa Clara County "green belt" ordinance.

The council has embarked upon a new study program aimed at official adoption of a Contra Costa County agricultural zoning ordinance which will preserve the county's best food-producing soil.

Assemblyman Donald Doyle met recently with the council in Antioch to discuss the statewide problem of preservation of agricultural lands. More than 400,000 acres of valuable farmland has been taken over by tract housing in the past 10 years, the council learned.

State agricultural authorities recognize this as a real threat to California's economy and local officials are being called upon to conserve agricultural resources by writing protective zoning ordinances, the Women's Planning Council states.

THIS NEW ZONING was pioneered by the county of Santa Clara Planning Commission and the Board of Supervisors, who adopted it as an amendment to the county zoning ordinance in September, 1953. The "A" zone permits all legitimate kinds of farming, but definitely prohibits industry, commercial development, and subdivisions, council members learned.

"The threat of disappearing farmlands must be faced in any region of expanding urbanization," commented Mrs. William Cakebread of Antioch, who is participating in the study program. "Currently subdivisions are allowed in agricultural zones in Contra Costa County through land use permits. There is no real protection for our orchards and farms," she added.

"WE ARE ENLISTING the support of farm groups in all parts of the county," said Mrs. Harold Davis of Walnut Creek, vice-chairman of the Women's Planning Council. "We have appeared before numerous groups to outline the problem faced by the state."

Council members will go to Stockton this month to study the new San Joaquin County agricultural zone. Details of the trip are being arranged by Mrs. Bea Bastian of Reliez Valley.

PH Chamber Will Install Officers

The Pleasant Hill Chamber of Commerce will meet Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at Monument Bowl to install officers.

This will take the place of the usual Monday noon meeting this month.

Master Planner Stockwell Will Leave County Post

The County Planning Commission November 15 will lose the services of Richard Stockwell, who has been its chief master plan advisor for two and a half years.

Stockwell recently announced his resignation as head of the Master Planning Section to accept the directorship of the Concord Planning Commission.

During his tenure, he had prepared master plans for many areas in Contra Costa County, and more recently studied plans for Lafayette, Orinda, Pleasant Hill, Moraga, San Ramon and Clayton Valley.

His successor will be announced later.

Married with four boys, Stockwell came to California from Rochester, New York, where he was a senior planner.

Lafayette Realtor To Trial in 1956

Trial in Superior Court in Martinez has been set for January 3 in the case of Robert Hitchcock, 43, Lafayette real estate broker charged with embezzling $8,700 in the course of a property transaction.

A plea of not guilty was entered by Hitchcock before Judge Harold Jacoby, and bail was reduced from $5000 to $2000.

Hitchcock was taken into custody in Las Vegas recently. The money, officers said, was due Mrs. Esther S. Schmidt of Berkeley in a transfer of property in Happy Valley owned by Mrs. Gladys Swick.

AAUW Approves Acalanes Bonds

At its recent general meeting, the Walnut Creek Branch of the American Association of University Women affirmed its support of the Acalanes school bond issue to be voted upon November 22, after an evaluation of the needs by the education committee.

In announcing this action Mrs. Harold E. Mutnick, president, commented "In no better way can a community benefit its children and its nation than by providing good schools, for education is the fundamental basis of our American way of life."

The Walnut Creek Branch of AAUW draws its membership from the same areas as those included in the Acalanes High School District and is a part of a national organization whose purpose is the uniting of the alumnae of different colleges and universities for practical educational work and in general for the maintenance of high standards of education.

March of Dimes Volunteers to Stuff Envelopes

Addressing and stuffing some 100,000 envelopes for the annual March of Dimes will begin Wednesday at Christ the King Church recreation hall, under the sponsorship of the Community Service Bureau, it was announced this week.

Volunteers have been asked to call Mrs. Selley at YE 4-7168, or the bureau at YE 4-0424.

The church is at 500 Gregory Lane, in Pleasant Hill.

Young Children Nearly Succumb To Weed Killer

Deadly arsenic, sprayed on his yard by a Concord man about two weeks ago, and accidentally rubbed onto the fingers of his 5 year-old boy, and 3 year-old daughter, and from there transported to their mouths, almost brought death in the Concord Community Hospital.

Richard Welsh told doctors that he had sprayed his yard with a 52.2 per cent arsenic, later described as in small quantities, "sufficient to kill half the population of the city."

Treated at the hospital and fed intravenously were little Richard, 3, and Laurie, 5, who were taken there after complaining to their mother of stomach cramps and vomiting. The Welchs live at 311 Haven Court.

They had been playing in the yard where dad had a few days before sprayed the weed killer and, doctors surmised, had rubbed some of the poison on their hands, and transferred it to their mouths while eating sandwiches or sucking thumbs.

Dr. Ronald Thiele, consulted in the case, said that he would contact the Child and Welfare Committee of the Alameda Contra Costa Medical Association, and the Pest Control Association, to ask about restricting the use of that particularly powerful brand of weed-killer, now in wide use.

NROTC Program Beckons High School Seniors

High school seniors and graduates have until November 19 to apply for the Navy's college training program, it was announced today at the office of Naval Officer Procurement in San Francisco.

Candidates will take a qualifying mental examination December 10 in the first step in the competitive cycle leading to an appointment as midshipman.

Successful candidates will begin their college careers next fall with financial assistance from the government, and after graduation will be commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps.

Male citizens of the United States between 17 and 21 are eligible to apply. A physical examination will be given for those who pass the mental examination in February.

Builders Group Hears Stockwell

Members of the Central Contra Costa Builders Exchange heard recent information on Contra Costa county land use planning and flood control October 27, at their first fall dinner meeting in Concord.

County Planning Commission director Tom Heaton, his assistant Dick Stockwell, and Carl C. Rich, flood control executive, were speakers.

Exchange President Hans Wachsmuth Jr., recently elected a vice-president of the California State Builders Exchange, parent organization for builders exchanges in California, and Frank Jackl, program chairman, introduced members from Contra Costa county, who affiliated during the summer months.

County to Fill Job Vacancies

F. E. Emery, county director of personnel, said this week that examinations are being given for the following job categories, in which there are vacancies:

Building plan checker, minimum $374 per month; tabulating supervisor $515; social work supervisor, $392.

County residence is waived for all these positions, and final date for filing applications is Thursday.

School Group on Retarded Meets

A Contra Costa County Schools Committee on Mental Retardation will meet regularly in the future to provide an opportunity for teachers of mentally retarded children to discuss mutual problems and their solution, Chairman Harlan H. Lewis said today.

Lewis, a guidance consultant on the county superintendent's staff, said the group has been invited to meet in Mt. Diablo Unified District this month at a time and place to be announced later. Mrs. Elizabeth French, Mt. Diablo Unified, and Mrs. Ava Westerman, Lafayette Elementary District, teachers of special classes, will arrange the program.

The committee's first county-wide meeting was held October 28 at the Hazel Woolley School, Knightsen, and was attended by teachers and others from school districts having special classes — Antioch-Live Oak Unified, Mt. Diablo Unified, Lafayette and Rodeo — and visitors from the Stockton City school system.

A meal prepared by pupils of the Hazel Woolley School, under the direction of their teachers, Mrs. Barbara Darling and Carlos Lopez, was served to the 30 present.

AMONG ORINDA solicitors for the United Bay Area Crusade in the November residential campaign will be, left to right, Mrs. V. P. Vorhees, Mrs. William Seifert Jr. and Mrs. John Williams. The residential drive will get under way next week.

Bill Rigney To Be Honored at Dinner

William Joseph Rigney of 1891 Glen View Drive, Walnut Creek, will have his Welcome Home night when he will be honored by his sports associates and many friends in the East Bay area at a special program at the Diablo Country Club at 6:30 p.m. November 15.

Rigney, new manager of the New York Giants, is an intelligent, courteous, expressive, "nervous-energy" man of 37, but he is a quiet family man around Walnut Creek during the off season when not involved in the baseball wars.

WALNUT CREEK FOLKS have been watching Bill over the years he has been in professional baseball, and many knew him in the days when he was around Oakland where he grew up.

The folks around Walnut Creek are proud of their two major league representatives, and they saw fit to honor another top-notcher three years ago when Ferris Fain, the Squire of Cherry Lane, Walnut Creek, came home quietly holding the American League batting title, and they are still fond of "Old Burrhead," but this time it is (Old Bones) Rigney who will have his night.

Committees are shaping up around the Walnut Creek area for Rigney Night, with Elwood Laws, brother of Clarence (Brick) Laws and owner of the local theater, who will serve as honoray chairman.

VAN R. WILLIAMS has headed up the Junior Chamber of Commerce group for the special fete, and Bob Foley and Bill Hayward, the energy men of the Chamber of Commerce, will spearhead the chamber's part in the program.

Damon Hayes, former Oakland Acorn and minor league pitcher, Mel Alamano and Ed Boero will head up a local sports committee; Mel Neilson, Lafayette; Jack Varner, Exchange; Buck Johnson, Rotary, and Carl Nelson and Augie Galan, liquor dealers, will start off the slate of boosters who will work on making the Rigney fete a success.

Metaphysicians To Meet Tuesday

Central Contra Costans are invited to join "The Metaphysical Fellowship Group" which will meet next Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. in the Livingston Room of the Orinda Community Church.

The new group will meet every Tuesday evening under the leadership of the Rev. William V. Morgan, pastor of the Oakland Unity Truth Center, and Sherman Anderson, director of the Metaphysical Library, San Francisco.

The purpose of the meetings will be the establishment of personal spiritual foundations through the metaphysical interpretation of the Bible.

You'll Get Your Sun on Thursday

Because the Post Office will not deliver mail next Friday, Veterans Day, next week's issue of The Sun will be dated and distributed Thursday, November 10.

That means that press day will be Wednesday and that it is essential for all news copy to be turned in earlier than usual. Publicity chairmen, neighborhood columnists and other writers of news and feature articles are asked to submit their material this weekend—by tomorrow, if possible.

The Sun Shopping News will come out next Wednesday, as usual.

The week after next, The Sun will again be issued on Friday, the usual publication day.

Bond Issue Can Solve High School Problem

By WALT JOHNSON

Coping with the nation's incoming flow of high school students during the next 10 years will be no easy task. In the Acalanes High School District, it will be a project of mammoth proportions.

Emphasizing the problem and effering a solution was James Lewis, principal of Orinda's new Miramonte High School. He spoke Tuesday before a meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at the Willows.

CITING "conservative" figures, Lewis pointed out that by 1956 United States high school enrollment will have climbed 153 per cent over 1950. The 1965 enrollment of the Acalanes District will be up 733 per cent over 1950!

There are 2200 students in the district at present, and in five years that figure will more than double to 5200 students. The Acalanes District includes three high schools, Acalanes in Lafayette, Las Lomas in Walnut Creek and Miramonte in Orinda.

To prevent double sessions and a lowering of educational standards, Lewis asked the Orinda Chamber to endorse the November 22 $3,250,000 bond issue for the Acalanes High School District. The chamber unanimously did so.

LEWIS explained that state limitations hold the amount available to the district through bonding at any time to five per cent of the assessed valuation. This would amount to $750,000 this year and approximately $500,000 each year for the next five years.

The bond money will facilitate construction of the first classroom units of a fourth high school, in addition to completing Las Lomas and Miramonte, and making additions to Acalanes.

If the bonds are approved, a resident who owns a home with a $20,000 current market value would pay an additional tax of less than $4.50 per year, according to Lewis.

HE SAID bonding spreads the paying of construction costs over a longer period of time. It eases the burden on residents already located here by sharing the cost with people who will move into the area in the future. Bonding is a continuation of the method of financing used by the district in past years.

Lewis said the bond proposal should provide all the bond funds available for construction for the next five years.

Frequent piece-meal appropriation elections are a wasteful expense, he said. School construction takes time — from planning board to completion requires more than two years.

About Our Happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

Coverage on links swifter by jeep

Top man on a totem pole—Around the world on roller skates—OR—How to get where you are going in a hurry in a jeep! Most unpremeditated experience of the week happened on Friday last when we sauntered into the Orinda Country Club for our customary casual coverage of the annual Hustle Bustle—a tournament for ladies with courage, imagination and a flippancy precipitated by the Halloween season.

There were fancy costumes representing "My Favorite Brand" and a nine-hole tour calculated to drive any sensible golfer off her rocker. Fancy our frustration when we ran head on into two reporters for the town papers and our own Sun columnist Marie Monahan busily taking notes on the funny costumes in a fashion far more efficiently than we have ever learned.

"Humph," thinks we, "No point hanging around here past the ham and eggs" so we accosted our old friend Frank Logeta, the keeper of the greens, and henceforth, from that moment, came to pass a wicked, eyebrow loosening flight.

Full speedsideways and slantwise we careened under hills and over dales in that non-tip-overable jeep (the man said) in order to see both ends of the Hustle Bustle—practically simultaneously. We were able to stick with it by bracing one foot against what should have been a door, hung on to what might have been an arm rest, and leaned on what definitely was the back of our neck.

Adhering to thee rear seat by the skin of her teeth was Mrs. Robert Jurs whon went along as ballast, an assistant par excellence in crisp white shorts and a cashmere sweater in shade of soft mauve pink.

Smith Brothers trace lost equipment

Hole one—all contestants used the same driver—a fiendish combination of regulation ends centered by a rubber hose. The Mesdames Victor Cranston, Norman Rotermund and F. V. Holmes heaved a mighty backswing with varying results. One four-foot slice, one complete fan, and one stem winder which cause the end of the club to go flying down the fairway. Result was that helpful ladies representing cans of Campbell soup (see Mrs. Monahan's story for the who-wore-whats), the Smith Brothers and a sprightly bottle of Black Label ambeld down the greensward tracing the lost equipment.

Next attempt by Mrs. Allen Ayres who negotiated a hefty swing, whirled dizzily and landed flat on her Gay Ninety (she was Miss Milani). Putting with croquet mallets Mrs. King Wilkin used the accepted croquet stance and undershot her mark.

Mrs. William Kilgo didn't—but should have maybe. The sign on the 4th green read "Relax—let your caddie putt." The incomporable Izzy Baker was carrying for all four of the Four Roses but, being a two-ball foursome, there were only two balls on the green so he nonchalantly shifts his ubiquitos cigar into low gear—makes two perfect, long, one-putts and unconcernedly shuffles off under the load of his four golf bags (golf of course).

On Tee 5 Carlton Rank—husband of one of the Smith Bros.—was serving luscious orange drinks which the ladies needed at that point because they had to drive while standing in a round bottom Chinese frying pan. On the green your right hand knoweth not what your left hand doeth—you hold the putter with one and your head with the other —later you shake dice for putts—teacher Pat Patton and lady champion Mrs. Ritchie Smith got snake eyes on that one which was nice.

Edifying foursome that, composed of the following six people: Patton, Smith, the Mesdames Stephen Jensen, James Sharp, Carleton Rank and Perry Thomas—particularly when the students were advising Mr. Patton on the relative merits of a practice swing whilst shooting from a sitting position on an old wooden chair. And so, on and on, fun for everyone and definitely so for us.

Seen in Berkeley and on Lake Merritt

Seen at the scene of the Pi Beta Phi Tea in Berkeley from Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Orinda: Mesdames Marion Plant, Fred Seulberger, R. P. Tolles, E. R. Holabird, W. A. Clayton and Edwin Rogers.

Seen at the Sail Boat Club on Lake Merritt at the Stanford Mothers Club meeting from Walnut Creek: Mesdames Reynolds Ostrom, Fred Ingraham, E. B. Hanson, Robert Freeman and Andy Miilu. From Concord: Mesdames Carl Mills and Clifton Moore.

From Lafayette: Mesdames Clayton VanWagner, George Thompson, Robert Pedder and Edgar Kaiser. From Orinda: Mesdames Dorothy Lamb, Herbert Dwight, Sig Groenings, Joseph Rupely, Colin Brown, Charles Baker, William Corbet and W. H. Van Daff. Edward Neighbor of Lafayette was one of the student speakers on the panel.

Cause: Last week the column was too long so the ending of our "Speedy Edie" story was sawed off thereby removing the point.

Effect: Shorter columns from now on.

Go to Church Sunday

Community

Two services are held at Lafayette Community Methodist Church each Sunday morning—the first at 9:30 and the second at 11. The Rev. Chester R. Lewis will speak at both services this Sunday, using as his subject "If Any Will Come After Me."

The Youth Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Eloise Birch will offer special music at the 9:30 service, and the Adult Choir, under the direction of George Shoptaugh, will have special numbers for the 11 o'clock service.

Sunday School is at 9:30 a.m. and also at 11 a.m. The High School Youth Fellowship and the Wesley Fellowship groups meet Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

The Official Board will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m., and the Finance Commission will meet at the same time.

The second in a series of Sunday evening meetings will have for its speaker Mrs. Will Ralph of the Women's Division of the Methodist Church in Belgian Congo. Mrs. Ralph will show curios and pictures of that country.

On Tuesday the 909 Club will have its kickoff potluck dinner at 6:46 p.m. sharp, at the church.

The annual bazaar of the Women's Society of Christian Service will be held next Friday and on November 12. It will start with a spaghetti dinner next Friday evening.

Presbyterian

"What Is Christian Salvation," beginning of a series on Our Great Salvation, will be the subject of the sermon by the Rev. W. Carl Thomas, pastor of the Lafayette - Orinda Presbyterian Church Sunday at the Park Theatre. There will be duplicate services at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. The nursery for infants up to two years is at the home of Mrs. Ellen Brians, 1030 Brown Avenue, Lafayette. This nursery is for the 9:30 service only.

Sunday School classes are held at the Lafayette Town Hall for two year olds and older at 9:30.

Each Tuesday morning at 10 the Women's Association of the church is presenting a series of Bible lessons under the leadership of the pastor. This class is conducted at the Lafayette Town Hall, Moraga Road and School Street, and is open to all women of the area.

The Lafayette Area potluck will be held tonight at 7 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kimball, 1074 Viela Court, Lafayette.

Lutheran

The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be celebrated at both the 8 and 11 o'clock worship services at the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, 294 Orchard Road, at Moraga Highway in Orinda. The pastor, the Rev. Edward R. Andersen will speak on the sermon topic "Forgive As God In Christ Forgave You."

Dr. J. G. McCormack, 141 Lombardy Lane, will speak at the worship services and also at the three Sunday School sections on the topic "Giving To Others." Each Sunday including Loyalty Sunday, November 20, a different member of the Stewardship Committee will speak at the services. The second anniversary of the organization of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, November 15, will be celebrated on Loyalty Sunday.

A Congregational Meeting is called for Monday evening, November 14 at 8 at the church. Reports of the activity of the planning committee will be made by Mrs. Delores Mjolsnes, chairman of the publicity committee, Chet Lincoln, chairman of the building committee and Dr. J. G. McCormack chairman of the finance committee. Mark Shepard, chairman of the meeting and president of the congregation, will open the meeting to any constructive suggestions or motions.

Community

The challenging topic, "The Most Basic Law of Human Existence" is chosen by Dr. William David Pratt for his sermon on stewardship to be delivered this Sunday, at the Orinda Community Church where he is to be guest speaker at two full services, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

Dr. Pratt is the superintendent of the Northern California Congregational Conference to which he came in 1953 after four years as minister of the Pilgrim Congregational Church in Pomona. He was ordained at Woodstock, Ill., in 1935 and received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from the Pacific School of Religion in 1953.

Music for both services will be provided by the full Chapel Choir singing Morgan's anthem, "God is the Light of the World" and by the organist and choir director, Daniel Popovich, playing "Andante Cantabile" by Tschaikovsky, "Fantaisie" by Dubois and "Pastorale" by Guilmant.

'Rumpelstiltskin' Afternoon Show Sellout Already

Tomorrow's 2 p.m. performance of "Rumplestiltskin" by the East Bay Children's Theater at Stanley School is sold out but tickets will be on sale at the door for the 10:30 morning show.

Mrs. Thomas Gaines of Walnut Creek and Mrs. David Bullen of Lafayette, both members of the Children's Theater, take leading parts in the performance. The play was enthusiastically received last Friday at a special performance in Berkeley for Contra Costa principals, teachers and PTA representatives.

Three plays will be presented at Stanley next spring: "Pinocchio," "Radio Rescue" and "Treasure Island." Season tickets at $2 for the four plays will be on sale at the door tomorrow morning.

W. B. Freeman Is New President Of Publications

William B. Freeman, 3905 Happy Valley Road, was recently elected president of Miller Freeman Publications, San Francisco publishers of business papers and directories for industry. He replaces his father, Miller Freeman, company founder who died in Seattle September 18.

W. B. Freeman is also president of the Board of Trustees of the Acalanes High School District.

He joined the pioneer West Coast publishing organization in 1929 and assumed direction of the southern division of the company in San Francisco in 1934. When the northern and southern divisions were merged in 1953, he became vice-president of the combined company.

Miller Freeman Jr., 4067 Happy Valley Road, was reelected secretary-treasurer. He has held that post since 1940, joining the company in 1934. Since reorganization and consolidation of the circulation departments in San Francisco in 1950, he has also served as director of circulations.

Miller Freeman Publications has offices in major cities throughout the United States and Canada. Publications include The Lumberman, Pulp & Paper, Mining World, The Log, Pacific Fisherman, Western Canner & Packer, Pacific Laundry & Cleaning Journal, Cleaning & Laundry Age, Construction World, Western Baker, Pacific Work Boat, and SEA & Pacific Motor Boat.

Two Schools Host Art Show

The Lafayette Junior Woman's Club is presenting an art show at Springhill School, Pleasant Hill Road, and at Burton School on St. Mary's Road, Lafayette. Starting last Monday the show has been displayed at Springhill, where it continues through today, and next Monday it will move to Burton and will be shown all next week.

Mrs. John B. Link, penny art chairman of the Lafayette Juniors, made arrangements for this display, with the assistance of her co-chairman, Mrs. Fred Lovealce. Members on Mrs. Lin's committee are Mesdames Elwood Helrich, Vernon Adams, William Kirkham and Frank Sesler.

The art show, sponsored by Paul Mills, curator of the Oakland Art Museum, and Miss Hazel V. Bray, educational assistant.

Etchings, oils and prints representing early California artists and history are supplied by the Oakland Art Museum.

Mrs. Ernest Dix, librarian at the Burton and Springhill Schools, is conducting the school children through the show and presents a description of each object of art displayed. Students tour the show during the mornings, and from 2:20 to 4 p.m. the show is open to the public. PTA members, parents and all interested parties are invited.

The show was planned to commemorate American Art Week, from last Tuesday through next Monday.

QUITE A QUAKE

About that October 23 earthquake—the next morning, that was the main theme, and not much wonder. Working down from the top of the hill, Mrs. Garcia of Judith Lane said it was very severe and their first concern was for the sun deck they are building, and now we know what that tremendous project up there is. Fortunately, it's built as rugged as a battleship and no damage was sustained.

Wave and Bill Thomas of Moraga Boulevard were in a theater in Berkeley and since it was their first big tremor, they thought it thrilling but were apprehensive of a panic. They weren't so thrilled, though, with a few cracks in their ceiling. They recently returned from a month's trip to Mexico City, where they were delighted with the beauty of the city, the grandeur of the scenery and the inexpensive leather products, and were appaled by the traffic in the city and the poverty through the countryside.

They spent a week in Denver first and then drove down through El Paso to the capital and up the coast through Nogales, and although they saw a lot of the country, in a care they felt it was an endurance contest—next time, try the plane.

They bought mostly leather goods, a bag for Wave and a camera case for Bill, and were very pleased with the exchange. The food was good in the city—they ate at the Prince Hotel most of the time, where they were staying—but between the border and the city, you had to have heart to enjoy it.

WHO'S THERE?

Norma and Merv Ortez of Walnut Drive thought Halloween had come a week early when the shake caused the doorbell to ring, the garage door flew open, flowers fell out of a vase.

One of Merv's closest friends from Cal days, "Cub" Walberger, came up from Pasadena to attend a Masonic meeting in San Francisco last week, and spent the previous weekend with the Ortezes.

They attended the Cal-USC game at Berkeley, went to President Sproul's 25th anniversary reception, and thence down to San Mateo, where they had dinner at the home of Randall Shields, another college friend.

Sunday was spent in sightseeing and dinner in the city, so they were really too tired to worry about an earthquake.

Recently Norma had a Brownie mothers' meeting at her home, and these girls will chart the destinies of the local Brownies for the coming year. Audrey Madeiros of Almanor Lane will be chairman, or Brownie mother; Norma Ortez, co-chairman; Darlene Barron, telephone chairman; Helen Roach of Dyer Drive, transportation chairman, and Martha de-Varona of Hall Lane, committee chairman. Monica Hecker also attended—she works, so she contributes moral encouragement.

Ellie and Milton Zimmerman of Almanor Lane recently celebrated their 33rd wedding anniversary, and those who toasted them were Lillian and Lincoln Angelius of San Francisco, Eloise and Maynard Colliander of Menlo Park, who used to live on Almanor Lane, and Jerry and Carole Campbell of Orchard Valley Lane. They all had dinner at the Angelius' home.

Sleepy Hollow Pool Nears Completion

Construction of the swimming pool at the Sleepy Hollow Recreational Association's grounds at the end of Van Tassel Lane has entered the final stages, President Ernie Starkman reported this week.

CONTRACTS have been let on sewers, fencing, drainage and decking around the pool.

The sewer project will be supervised by Stan Majka, fencing by Harold Iverson, decking by Dick Kendall and drainage by Jim Campbell.

Overall supervision of the entire project is in the hands of Mark Noble.

The bulldozed area is already being planted, under the direction of Rudy Grah.

ALREADY PLANS are being laid for next year's activities, including camping sites, swimming instruction and a Red Cross lifesaving course.

A grand opening will be held in the spring and will include a skin divers' exhibition, a water ballet and a ping-pong tournament during the exhibitions.

Activities for the new club are being formulated by the program committee, whose members are Coleman Huntley, Bill Witter, Bruce Howard, Murray Studley and Frank Gillespie, chairman.

GOP Women Still Selling Flags

The "Star Spangled Banner" campaign, sponsored by the California Federation of Republican Women in an effort to put an American flag in every home, will continue into 1956, according to Mrs. Marvin Kennedy, Orinda, state chairman of the project.

"On Veterans Day, next Friday, we hope to see the American flag flying over many Orinda homes and business concerns," Mrs. Kennedy state.

The Orinda Republican Women's Club is actively participating in the project which offers three by five-foot flags with six-foot poles for $3.75. The Orinda club is also including with every sale a list of holidays on which the flag should be flown.

Orders are being taken by Mrs. Russell Gilwee, CL 4-5921. Mrs. Gilwee noted that pamphlets on the correct use and display of the flag are also available for 5 cents. She also reminded residents that the flags make unique and welcome Christmas gifts.

LEGAL NOTICE

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE Bonds of the County of Contra Costa Issued on Behalf of Orinda County Fire Protection District—Issue of 1950

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County, State of California, in the Chambers of said Board, Hall of Records, Martinez, California, on

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1955

at the hour of 11:00 a.m. (P.S.T.) for the purchase of $46,000 principal amount of bonds designated "Bonds of the County of Contra Costa Issued on Behalf of Orinda County Fire Protection District—Issue of 1950," more particularly described below:

ISSUE: $46,000, consisting of 46 bonds of the denomination of $1,000 each, all dated December 15, 1950. Said bonds are the remaining $46,000 of an authorized issue of $130,000 aggregate principal amount authorized at an election held in said District on November 21, 1950.

MATURITIES: Said bonds mature serially in consecutive numerical order, from lower to higher, on December 15th in each year as follows:

$3,000 principal amount in each of the years 1956-1961, both inclusive.
$4,000 principal amount in each of the years 1962 and 1963, both inclusive.
$3,000 principal amount in each of the years 1964-1967, both inclusive.
$2,000 principal amount in each of the years 1968-1971, both inclusive.

Without option of prior payment.

INTEREST RATE: Maximum six (6) per cent per annum, payable annually on December 15, 1951 and semi-annually thereafter on June 15 and December 15 in each year. Bidders must specify the rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders will be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maurtities of said bonds. The interest rate stated in the bid must be in a multiple of one-quarter of one per cent per annum, payable annually the first year and semi-annually thereafter.

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the office of the Treasurer of Contra Costa County, Martinez, California, only from the revenues derived from taxes levied and collected on property within Orinda County Fire Protection District for whose account and purposes said bonds are issued.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by the County. Such bonds are registerable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds are authorized by vote of a majority of the voters of said district voting at a special election for the purpose of authorizing bonds for the acquisition, construction and completion of 2 fire houses for said District equipped with engines and other necessary fire fighting facilities, equipment and apparatus.

SECURITY: Said bonds are not obligations of Contra Costa County, but are special obligations payable only out of revenues derived from taxes levied and collected on property within Orinda County Fire Protection District for whose account and purposes said bonds are issued, and said County has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within Orinda County Fire Protection District subject to taxation by said County, without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax Laws, either by the terms of such laws of by ruling of a federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, or by decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may, at his option, prior to the tender of said bonds by the County, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and in such case the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of Messrs. Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington & Sutcliffe, of San Francisco, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge.

Terms of Sale

Highest Bid: The bonds will be awarded to the highest and best bidder considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the County would be required to pay from December 15, 1955, to the respective maturity dates at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the County. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed between the dates aforesaid according to thirty-day month standard four decimal municipal bond interest tables. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from December 15, 1955, to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

Right of Rejection: The Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County reserves the right, in its discretion, to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

Prompt Award: The Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for the receipt of proposals; provided that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given to the Board of Supervisors notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

Prompt Delivery: Delivery of said bonds will be made promptly to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer in Martinez, California, as soon as the bonds can be prepared but not prior to December 15, 1955.

Right of Cancellation: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the County shall fail to tender the bonds for delivery within sixty (60) days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

Form of Bid: All bids must be unconditional; for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale; and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Treasurer of Contra Costa County, Martinez, Californa, and endorsed "Proposal for Contra Costa County, Orinda County Fire Protection District Bonds—Issue of 1950."

Bid Check: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $5,000, drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the County to secure the County and the District from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the County on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the County. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County by mail upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon the deposit made by the successful bidder.

Information relative to the financial condition of Orinda County Fire Protection District will be furnshed to any bidder upon request.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of the District or the title of the County Officers to their respective offices.

DATED: October 25, 1955.

ORINDA SUN

Friday, November 4, 1955

THE ENGAGEMENT OF Miss Gail Johnston of 3182 Withers Avenue, Lafayette, to Ralph Burgess of 2370 Jones Road, Walnut Creek, was announced at a party last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Horstkotte of 3178 Withers Avenue. 'Hustle Bustle' Is Fabulous Affair

By MARIE MONAHAN

The golfing ladies of the Orinda Country Club proved better sports than most of us by arising, some as early as 5 a.m., to bedeck themselves as their "favorite brands" for last Friday's "Hustle Bustle." The annual party, Halloween inspired, proved a real morning eye-opener when all manner of manufacturers' products turned up at 8:30 for look-see laughs, costume awards, and a bracer of breakfast before going on to golf on the goofed-up greens about which Edith Bolman tells you in her column.

As for us (a mere judge for the costumes and unaccustomed to being up and out so early), we about choked on our tomato juice when the Smith Brothers, right off the cough-drop box, put in their most distinguished appearance.

UNDER THE guise of swallow-tailed coats and long grey beards and wigs, Mrs. Perry Thomas and Mrs. Carl Rank of Happy Valley walked off with prizes for the most comical pair.

Mrs. Gerald F. Barr extricated herself from a six-foot cardboard tube of gold with a bright red swivel-top as Revlon Lipstick to receive a prize for the most clever costume along with Mrs. James Sharp of Orinda in lean black, tuxedo-topped, top-hat and gold-trimmings as a label for "Johnny Walker."

Everyone's costume was uniquely original but we had to get down to brass plaques so Mrs. Edward Maloney of Orinda, outstanding in beige burlap as Mr. Peanut, complete with monocle, cane and top hat, too, was delighted with her prize for most original costume, a tiny silver disc engraved "Hustle-Bustle, 1955."

Sharing in "original" honors, Mrs. Neil Taylor as the Green Giant Pea, spritely attired in an elfish outfit of varied greens, fresh garden peas strung and slung stole-fashion around her shoulders, and a slivery-green topnotch festooned with giant peapods, she might have actually been the Green Giant, so lifelike did she resemble his person.

IN A BERUFFLED skirt and a ruffcollar of Scott tissue papers and boasting a hat fashioned of Scotkin boxes and papers, Mrs. M. C. Green was a veritable "Mary, Queen of Scots," taking prize for one of the prettier costumes in the zany parade of well-known products.

Another "prettiest" prize winner, Mrs. J. M. Walker might have just stepped right off the Morton's Salt Box in a short- full-skirted dress of sunbeam yellow and carrying an umbrella of shimmery cellophane streamers.

Two group prizes were awarded — one each to the four ladies who represented a certain women's ad that starts "I dreamt I went Walking, etc." . . . Mesdames Fred Federighi, J. Aubrey Sweet, Al Tanner, William Ledgett, all of Orinda, evoking chuckles in a little tulle, but lots of hat, furs, a touch of jewel.

A trio of Campbell Soups, Orindans Mrs. R. F. Hopkins, Mrs. A. W. Reid, and Mrs. A. J. McGlynn of Walnut Creek, with Mrs. Thomas Bacon, also of Orinda, as the cute Campbell cook, received another group prize, encasing themselves in bright red and white cardboard cans, the printing copied neatly right down to the Oz., Net Weight.

WHEN WE inquired of Mrs. Ritchie Smith, Orinda's golf champ, exactly which clans her plaids represented in her "Highland Scotch" finery, she laughingly replied "Hink's."

Under a tremendous "top banana" hat from which dangled king-sized cigarettes, we recognized Orinda's golf pro, Pat Patton, and Mrs. Charles Phillips of Orinda combined cigarette and toy car in a novel bit of headgear to advertise "Not a cough, etc." for Camels.

Very wide awake in spite of their slogan were Mrs. Eugene Payne and Mrs. James Stone who both came as Fisk ads, "time to retire." Representing the famed pineapple firm, Dole, was Mrs. Curtis White of Orinda, in an attractive hawaiian print, a beautiful straw hat, and a pretty orchid lei.

THOUGH THEIR parsley corsages were well into the wilting stage, not so the twosome, Mrs. Joseph Downs of Orinda and Mrs. Charles Jostes, who combined their energies to co-chairman the day, as well as their costumes to represent the 57 varieties of Heinz & Co.

Pushing pink shirts for Brooks Brothers, Mrs. William Parrish of Orinda while Mrs. Allan Ayers, another Orindan, was beguilingly dressed as an 1890 bathing beauty for Milani's French Dressing. Arrow Shirt got good publicity from Mrs. Hugh MacIntyre while Mrs. Van Peabody of Lafayette put in her own plug for Peabody Motors in a mechanics suit of the same name.

In the costumed crowd, we spotted Mrs. Phipps Rasmussen, who was another clever Campbell Cref . . . Mrs. Edward Bergen of Orinda in military dress, tiny flashlights on her shoulders for General Electric . . . Mesdames Robert Diehl, King Wilkin, Arthur Summers and William Kilgo sharing a table. A contrasting couple, Mrs. Victor Chanston of Orinda in severe black and Mrs. Norman Rotermund of Lafayette in stark white, all adding up to an ad for "Black & White."

Along with Robin Duffy and Beverlee Holly, we were glad we got up on time to act as judges. With all that humor behind us, what better way to start the day!

MEMBERS OF JUNIOR Women's Clubs have always been willing to help out when a worthy cause tells of its need, and our area certainly is no exception. Members of clubs from all over the area will gather Wednesday to stuff envelopes for the coming drive for polio funds. Making preparations are, left to right, Mesdames Jack E. Corder, Richard W. Holmes, Charles Opratt Jr. and John A. Pardee. They represent clubs from Orinda, Lafayette and Pleasant Hill. —Sun Photo by L. John Larsen

Elizabeth Traulsen Wed In Double-Ring Rites

In a lovely ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church in Concord, Elizabeth Rose Traulsen and Gary Joseph Drozda exchanged marriage vows October 29.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. James Crothers, pastor and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church of Pleasant Hill and Rev. Ernest Bradley of Concord Presbyterian Church.

Elizabeth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Traulsen of 1300 Contra Costa Highway and Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Elsberry of 290 Blackfield Drive, Concord. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white nylon tulle over satin with the collar trimmed in sequins and bracelet length sleeves. The lace inserted skirt was floor length with a full train.

Her French imported finger tip veil was attached to a rhinestone, pearl and sequined studded tiara and she carried a cascade bouquet centered with a white orchid.

HER MATRON of honor was her aunt, Alice Moreno of Auburn, who wore an aqua blue off the shoulder dress of lace over satin bodice with a net over satin full skirt. Her cascade bouquet was of yellow carnations.

Her bridesmaids were Carole Neely, Dorothy Reed and Sharon Hill. Their dresses were off the shoulder with a bodice of yellow lace over satin and the full skirts were net over satin. Their cascade bouquets were of aqua carnations they wore matching headbands and accessories. They preceded the bride down the aisle decked with white chrysanthemums.

The bride's mother chose a beige brocade street length dress with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of green orchids. Mrs. Elsberry wore a beige knit suit with a jeweled beige hat and complimented her outfit with black accessories. Her corsage was of rust orchids. Flower girl for the wedding was Kathryn Traulsen, sister of the bride and another sister Patricia and Shirley Bell of Auburn were the candle lighters.

GARY CHOSE as his best man Dick Hill, his brother-in-law. Ushers were Jerry Elsberry, Ted Neely and Ed Fremouw. Ed Fremouw is a student at Stanford University and lives in Seattle, Wash. Nuptial musical numbers were by Samuel Costales of Concord who sang "I Love You Truly," "With This Ring I Thee Wed," and "The Lord's Prayer." He was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Don Davis.

Hostesses at the reception which followed the ceremony were Imogene Clary of Clayton Road and Maxine Bartke.

The bride is a graduate of Mt. Diablo High School and Pleasant Hill Elementary School. At the present time she is employed at Sears Roebuck in Walnut Creek. Gary is also a graduate of Mt. Diablo High School where their romance started and also of East Contra Costa Junior College. He is presently employed as an apprentice carpenter in the immediate area.

Prior to her marriage Elizabeth was honored at several showers, one at the home of her aunt in Auburn which was a miscellaneous shower and another, a linen shower at the home of Imogene Clary, another given in her home with her sister acting as hostess and the last at the home of Sharon Hill.

Immediately following the reception the bride and groom left on a 10 day honeymoon to Las Vegas and upon their return will make their home in the immediate area.

Mrs. Vallely Will Give Second Talk On Theater Stage

The second of five lectures by Lorita Baker Vallely will be held Wednesday at the Orinda Theater sharply at 2 p.m. This lecture serious, sponsored by the Orinda Branch of the Children's Hospital, is $7.50 for the remaining four lectures or $2 for an individual lecture.

Tickets may be purchased at the door on the day of the lecture. For any further information call Mrs. Ned de Laveaga, chairman, CL 4-3745.

At this November lecture Mrs. Vallely will discuss the troublesome problem of security. How can one be safe from subversion and still hold on to the liberty which is the basis of his ideology?

Among the books to be reviewed will be "Guaranteed for Life" by Bruce Findlay, "So "Help Me, God" by Felix Jackson, "Nine Rivers from Jordan" by Denis Johnston, "Thurber's Dogs" by James Thurber, "Years of the City" by G. R. Stewart, "The Tontine" by Thomas Costaine, "Castle Garac" by Nicholas Monsarrat, "Eggs I have Laid" by Meredith Wilson and "It All Started with Europe" by Richard Armour.

In addition to the regular review book lists, an additional Christmas booklist for adults and children will be given to all.

Kay Kammer Will Become Bride of 'Pete' Peterson

Engagement of their daughter, Kay Kammer, 19, was announced at a Halloween gathering by Mr. and Mrs. John D. Kammer, 982 Pleasant Hill Road, Pleasant Hill.

She will become the wife of Harold "Pete" Peterson, 24, of Concord, a 1950 graduate of San Ramon High School. Kay is an alumna of Mt. Diablo High School, class of 1953, and is employed in The Sun's business office.

The future benedict's parents are deceased. Wedding plans are indefinite.

Breast Cancer Movies Part of Detection Drive

A movie on breast cancer, its detection and clinical treatment, will be shown free in Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda theaters November 18, it was announced this week by Mrs. Charles Pratt of the Walnut Creek Junior Woman's Club, a sponsor.

The American Concer Society's "Breast Self-examination" will run for 16 minutes, after which a local physician will answer questions by women in the audience.

The showings are part of an intensive program to alert California women to their part in the program . . . "credited with having saved numerous lives. Its importance is understood when one considers that while 20 per cent of cancer of the breast is now being cured, the rate would be 80 per cent if every woman could learn the lesson of this film," according to Mrs. Pratt.

In Walnut Creek, the movie will be November 18 at 10:30 a.m., and 2 p.m. in the El Rey Theater; in Lafayette at 8 p.m. at the Park Theater and 8 p.m. in the Stanley School; in Orinda at 1 p.m. in the Orinda Theater and 8 p.m. in the Community Church.

Folk Dancers Have Fine Party on 8th Birthday

"Park your shootin' irons here, podner, horses in back." Such was the sign atop a bale of hay at the entrance to the hall at Charlotte Wood School in Danville Saturday night.

Event was the celebration of Acalanes Folk Dancers eighth birthday anniversary. Only entrance to the Acalanes Barnyard Shuffle was down a slide placed in the doorway. This manner of entrance and the speedy descent into the hall put everyone in a gay party mood.

BALES OF HAY placed around the hall served as seats. Corn stalks, squash and pumpkins were artfully used in decorating. There were barrels of shiny red apples to munch on during the evening and cider to quench the thirst of the dancers.

A realistic dummy farmer took a siesta at one end of the room. Club members and their guests wore ginghams and jeans. Cowboy hats and boots added to the barn dance atmosphere. At midnight the hard working barn dancers dined by candle light.

Tables were laid with red and white checked place mats. A robust and delicious stew was included in the hearty midnight supper.

CLEVER DANCE programs, little brown barns, opened their doors to the list of dances to be enjoyed during the evening. Because it was a barn dance squares were more numerous than on regular party nights.

Guest square caller was Stan Valentine of Martinez. Club members who called were Rick Benofsky of Lafayette and Glenn and Reva Ward from El Cerrito.

President Marge Underwood, Lafayette, expressed her appreciation for the cooperation of other officers and club members who had worked with her during the past year. New officers will be elected at the club's regular party November 12.

Committee responsible for the evening of fun included Chairmen Elwood and Irene McNichols, Dic kand Marjorie Banwell, Bill and Betty Babcock, all of Walnut Creek. Those who served from Lafayette were Fred and Virginia Angella and Linwood and Katherine Clark.

Garden Section Will See Flower Arrangements

The garden section of the Lafayette Women's Forum will meet Tuesday, November 15, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. J. E. Barker, 3386 Victoria Avenue, Lafayette.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. W. L. Cottle of Walnut Creek, who will be introduced by Mrs. Wally Hanson, chairman. Mrs. Cottle will exhibit her hobby of miniature dry flower arrangements, and give a demonstration of their preparation.

Her arrangements have been displayed in many places, including the Alameda Building at the 1939-40 World's Fair on Treasure Island, and at the 1955 Oakland Spring Flower Show where she received a blue ribbon.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Carson A. White and Mrs. Dale Harden.

Kappa Taus Have Seasonal Fun at Meets

Kappa Tau Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met October 18 at the home of Mrs. John McKensie of Lucinda Lane, Pleasant Hill. Presiding was President Mrs. Norman Fratske.

During the course of the evening Membership Chairman Mrs. Earl Kucta spoke over the coming Conferencial Tea to be held Sunday and the entrance of new pledges. Mrs. John MacKenzie, ways and means chairman, spoke about the different philanthropic events for the future, and also reported on the huge success of the Christmas card sales undertaken by each of the members. The social chairman, Mrs. Harry Stubblefield, reviewed coming events.

KAPPA TAU Chapter has taken as its philanthropic act, a pledge to send money and aid to two boys that were badly burned recently in a barbecue fire. The children are Jeff Winfield, son of the Howard Winfields of Johns Court, and Danny Belding, son of the Robert Beldings of Claudia Drive.

The meeting was followed by the first secret pal birthday party. Members were all sorry to see two of their members leave, Mrs. Edward Swanson of Danville and Mrs. John Rogers of Pleasant Hill.

OCTOBER 14 A SCAVENGER hunt was held at the home of Mrs. Norman Fratske of Oak Park Boulevard and everyone came in hobo attire. Following the hunt a buffet dinner was held for all members, pledges and new transfers.

Saturday a Halloween party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fratske for all the pledges, transfers and members and their husbands. Prizes were awarded for the best costumes and the evening consisted of dancing, games and midnight brunch.

Phi Mu Alumnae Meet Tonight at Butterfield Home

The first fall business meeting of the Contra Costa Phi Mu alumnae will be held tonight at the home of Vice President Mrs. Thomas Butterfield of 261 Betty Lane, Pleasant Hill. All Phi Mu's in the area are invited.

Contra Costans who attended the recent tea given by the active chapter on the University of California campus, honoring the national and district presidents, Hazel Benninghoven and Alice Schluntz, included Contra Costa's President Betty Gordon, Secretary Lorrie Patterson, and Joye Lee, all of Orinda, Helen Pitts and Mary O'Donnell of Walnut Creek, and Mildred Gerringer of Concord.

One of Contra Costa's members, Virginia Deal, was interviewed on Jane Todd's radio program in conjunction with "Oil Progress Week." Virginia is a chemist with Shell Development Company.

Orioles Prepare For Center Sale

Members of the Orinda Orioles put in a work day Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Robert Case, 118 Lombardy Lane, in preparation for the sale to be held by all units of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center next month in the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek.

The Orioles recent rummage sale held at St. George's Hall was highly successful, according to Mrs. A. A. Schmidt, publicity chairman.

Local Juniors Fight Polio

All Junior Women's Clubs of Alameda and Contra Costa Counties will participate in a district project Wednesday when they gather to stuff envelopes for the polio drive.

Local area members will gather at Christ the King Catholic Church on Gregory Lane, Pleasant Hill, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. to work on the project.

Co-chairmen for this area are Mrs. John Pardee of the Crest View Junior Woman's Club of Pleasant Hill and Mrs. Frank Fiftal of the San Leandro Juniors.

Taking part in the project will be representatives from Junior Woman's Clubs of Pleasant Hill, Concord, Walnut Creek, Danville, Lafayette and Orinda.

Holiday Fashions Shown By Legion Post Tomorrow

"Holiday Fashions" is the keynote for a fashion show and luncheon to be given by the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 115 of Walnut Creek at the El Nido Restaurant in Lafayette tomorrow at 12:30 p.m.

The show will present fashions for the suburban women, from the pre-school child to the grandmother, in the Holiday season.

The pre-school and sub-teen fashions will be shown by Tots and Teens of Walnut Creek and modeled by Dawn Beeston, Cynthia Hinkson, Nancy and Kathy Guilieri and Margaret Farrar.

The teen-ager, mother and grandmother fashions will be shown by Steele's of Walnut Creek and will be modedel by Mesdames Emery Carpenter, John E. von Meier, Milton Guilieri, Elmo Guilieri, Joseph Trukositz, Donald Maclean, Robert W. Stickel, Armand Annereau, Mrs. Ruth Gorow, Mrs. Ruth Stow, Misses Shelia Johnson, Georgia Brum and Sandra Farrar.

The proceeds from this show will be used to finance the various community services of the unit, one of these the Recreation Center of Walnut Creek and another mentally retarded children.

For reservations call Mrs. Emery Carpenter at YE 4-6844 or Mrs. Armand Annereau at MU 5-4903.

Tea Will Honor Sponsors of Art Center Tuesday

To honor its sponsors, The Orinda Children's Art Center will give a tea Tuesday at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Nathaniel S. Dodge Jr., 51 Rheem (formerly Irvine) Boulevard.

Mrs. Dodge, a charter member of the art center and its president in 1950, has lived in Orinda for 15 years. Her home, one of the first on Irvine Drive, is now completely hidden from the road by oak trees.

According to Mrs. John P. Ratcliff, in charge of the tea, the children's art work and some of that done by sponsors in the adult classes, will be exhibted in Mrs. Dodge's playroom. Mrs. Wellington Ray is exhibit chairman and will be assisted by Mrs. Spencer F. Archer, chairman of the art center this year.

A class for sponsors entitled "Decorating Yourself for Christmas" will begin Wednesday morning, November 16, and continue through Wednesday, December 7. "Holiday hats," felt skirts, and Christmas accessories will be featured. Mrs. Harry Lavagetto who will conduct the class also has some wonderful ideas for children's gifts.

The class will meet in the playroom of Mrs. Ted Harrer, Seven Oaks Circle. Those sponsors who wish to sign up for this class should call Mrs. Harrer at CL 6-8066.

Towhee Unit Plans Exhibits For Annual Christmas Tea

Guests will be transported into a children's fairyland when they attend the "Lollipop Tea" to be held November 29 at the Diablo Country Club by members of the Towhee Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

This will be the annual Christmas tea which has become one of the most popular pre-holiday events in the area.

THE FANTASY THEME will prevail on the three main serving tables, the bazaar booths, and the entrance to the club. Exhibits will follow the traditional Christmas theme and will be entered by groups in Orinda, Lafayette, and Walnut Creek.

Judges are Mrs. Emily Pacini, Ruth Franklin and Vesta Bates.

Organizations to enter exihibits include the Starling, Robins, Junior Linnets and Tananger Units of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center; the Walnut Branch and the Laurel Junior Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

The Valley Art Center; the Seabury Club of St. Paul's Episcopal Church; the Pied Piper Nursery School; the Alamo Womens Club; the Humpty Dumpty and Pandora Chapters of the Children's Home Society and the Jack and Jill Nursery School.

Mrs. William Phelan Jr. will serve as exhibit chairman.

PREPARATIONS are in full swing for the annual Christmas Sale and Bazaar of the Women's Society for Christian Service of the Lafayette Community Methodist Church next Friday and on Saturday, November 12. Examining some of the many objects to be offered for sale are, left to right, Mrs. Wayne F. Weeks, Mrs. William Banks, Mrs. William Takahashi, general chairman of the event, and Mrs. John McBride.

Gamma Kappas Enjoy Parties

Epislon Sigma Elpha chapter of Gamma Kappa held its meeting October 25 at the home of Mrs. Emil Risi of McGuire Drive in Walnut Creek. The meeting was combined with a Halloween party for all rushees.

During the party, party games were played followed by festive refreshments. The first part of the evening consisted of a short business meeting when the group discussed plans for the next meeting when Miss Wilma Wright of Contra Costa Junior College will be the main speaker, and her topic for the evening will be on charm, with all the aspects of charm, posture and personality included.

Members present were Mesdames Raymond Beeson, Bruce Boswell, Morris Skinner, Charles Smith, Beebe Wilder, Don Burnham, Samuel Fields, H. R. Jones and Ted Poehler, a rushee.

The next meeting will be held in Orinda at the home of Mrs. Harry Clemons Tuesday when the group will discuss future plans for a meeting at the Zombie Club to be held December 17.

Legion Auxiliary To Sponsor Show

American Legion Auxiliary Post 115 announced that tickets are available for the fashion show and luncheon to be held tomorrow at the El Nido in Lafayette. Models, auxiliary members and their children will wear fashions from Edith Steel's and Tots and Teens, both of Walnut Creek. They will feature fashions for the entire day from sunup to after sundown.

Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Armand Annereau, MU 5-4093. General chairman is Mrs. Edna Pimper. Proceeds will go to Shadelands School.

Jaycees to Again Sponsor Christmas Carol Festival

Christmas Carol Festival plans were discussed by representatives from various churches in Central Contra Costa County and members of the Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce recently.

The meeting was held at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette. Richard Hansen, choir director of the church, was the host.

The meeting was the first preliminary to the Third Annual Christmas Carol Festival sponsored by the jaycee group. According to Gordon Lindberg of Lafayette, co-chaiman of the Festival committee, this year's program promises to be the largest and best yet held.

He said that definite plans would be aired as soon as date, time and place were confirmed.

Festivals of the past two years assembled choir groups and other guest artists from 13 churches in the area from Pleasant Hill to Danville as well as Lafayette and Orinda. Caroling was successful in terms of attendance, good will, interdenominational fellowship and collection of food gifts.

The Lafayette-Orinda Jaycees this year were commended by the California State Junior Chamber for the idea and presentation of the past two Festivals. It was suggested that other jaycee groups adopt simlar projects.

Therapy Units To Plan Project

A Christmas booth offering hand-made gifts and decorations for sale will be located in the Walnut Creek shopping center by units of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Professor to Speak to Forum

A distinguished authority on Latin America comes to Diablo Country Club when Dr. Hubert Herring addresses the Diablo Tuesday Morning Forum Tuesday at 10:30 a.m.

Lecturing on "Argentina, Problem Child of the Americas," Hubert Herring, professor of Latin American Civilization at Pomona College and Claremont Graduate School, draws on knowledge and experiences gleaned in over 25 years of annual trips to the 20 republics to the south.

HE IS THE AUTHOR of several authoritative books, notably "A History of Latin America," Good Neighbors," "Mexico, the Making of a Nation," "America and the Americas," and co-author of "Renascent Mexico."

His articles have appeared in scores of magazines and newspapers, such as the Christian Science Monitar, New York Times, Harper's and Yale Review. Dr. Herring has a rare gift among hiotorians, the ability to make his analysis come vividly alive to the listener, while at the same time maintaining meticulous accuracy of fact, said a Forum member.

COFFEE WILL BE served at 10 a.m. by Mesdames William Koch, Harold Smith and Garrett Keene. Decorations will be in charge of Mrs. E. P. Sawyer, Lafayette, and tickets, which may be bought at the door the day of the lecture, under Mrs. Robert B. Bartlett, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. William E. Boyd of Danville.

Area sponsors include Mesdames William E. Boyd and Jackson Calvin, Alamo; E. P. Sawyer, Anna B. Stewart, Lafayette; William L. Denault, Melvin S. Jacobus, Kendric B. Morrish, Orinda; J. H. Gillan, E. J. Molloy, Pleasant Hill, and Robert B. Bartlett, Chester Hook and Fred B. Taylor, Walnut Creek.

Rainbow Girls To Show Clothes

Walnut Creek Assembly 84, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, will hold a tea and fashion show at the Masonic Temple, Walnut Creek, tomorrow at 2 p.m.

Clothes will be modeled by members of the organization and will be shown through the courtesy of The Clothes Horse, a Walnut Creek dress shop.

Tickets may be obtained through members of the Assembly, or by calling YE 4-7149.

Alumnae of Mills College Gather

The annual meeting of the Alumnae Council took place at Mills College this week, ending yesterday.

Delegates from Mills College branches throughout the United States and Hawaii attended. The theme was "Organized Action for Mills." Delegates discussed plans to promote fellowship and service and the aims of the Alumnae Association for the coming year.

Mrs. J. Blaker Herod, national chairman of the Student Recommendation Committee and member of the association board of governors, spoke on "Setting the Tempo."

Lafayette Couple Marries

In the picturesque setting of the oldest Presbyterian church in California, Ann Parker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Cecil Parker, First and Monroe, Lafayette, became the bride of Carl E. Peters Saturday in Mendocino.

The small, late afternoon ceremony was witnessed by the respective parents of the couple. Carl is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Peters, 1016 Sunnybrook Drive, Lafayette.

The newlyweds will make their home in Lafayette following a honeymoon on the Mendocino Coast.

The Rev. Martin Eidsath officiated at the wedding, after which a wedding dinner was held at Little River Inn.

Ann majored in psychology at the University of California, graduating in June. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority. Her father is a professor of education at the university. Ann graduated from Acalanes High School in 1951.

Carl is employed with a Lafayette business firm; he graduated from Armstrong School of Business, Berkeley, and Acalanes High School, Class of 1952.

Las Lomas Tries for Grid Title Tonight

Knight, Pirate Elevens Will Play at Acalanes

The Las Lomas Knights play host to the Pittsburg Pirates tonight in what is definitely the game of the week, under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field, with kickoff slated for 8 o'clock sharp.

The Knights are undefeated and will be shooting for the championship in tonight's play. A win would give them undisputed first place with an unblemished record.

Pitt has a tie with Diablo and all the rest have been wins, although the Pirates will probably have to face the Dons next week in a makeup of an earlier game postponed due to vandalism.

THE LAS LOMAS Knights, under the direction of Coaches George DeKlotz and George Davis, were placed in the cellar division by pre-season dopesters, but the Knights not only upset the dope bucket but, also, they have registered nothing but wins to date.

There is no question but that both clubs will pull out all stops for this one, and a capacity crowd is expected to be on hand — in fact, it's probable that late-comers will find standing room only.

In Vern Kenley, Don Ogden and Duane Brown the Knights have a fine trio of running and blocking backs who have given a good account of themselves every time they have gone to the post.

In Jim Symington the Knights have one of the league's better quarterbacks, who combines ball handling finesse, better-than-average passing and good play calling, to rack up enough touchdowns to win.

THE KNIGHTS have a forward wall that has displayed a quick and aggressive charge, both on offense and defense.

The game tonight will depend to a large extent on how well the Knights can contain the speedy Pitt backs and bottle up the aerial game of the Pitt men, who have developed a good passer in Charles Verduzco.

In Anthony Barrelli, Myron Robb, Vic Vagliente and Jesse Lea, the Pirates have a group of speedy backs who, while on the small side, are dynamite in the open, where they can utilize their speed of foot.

EACH WEEK the Knights have come up with a brand of ball that makes for victory — in the Don game is was the conversion kick, in the Antioch game it was a hustling defense, in the Pleasant Hill game, a second-half comeback, and in the Diablo game, capitalizing on the breaks.

Diablo has been the only team to break the Pitt championship win streak, and that but once in eight years. On one occasion Diable and Pitt tied.

It remains to be seen if Las Lomas can trip the Pirates tonight, but they enter the game on an even-steven basis — in fact, they have an edge, on the record of games played to date.

Both clubs have been well scouted at this stage, and defenses could be stout as a result, but chances are that a few new pass patterns and special plays will be introduced in order to turn the tide of tonight's game.

Knights Trounce Diablo Devils For Win No. 7

The Las Lomas Knights played their cards just right against Diablo's Devils last Friday night and, despite the fact that the pack seemed stacked against them at times, they came through for their seventh win in a row and kept themselves at the top of the Contra Costa Division of the Diablo Valley Athletic League as the county's only undefeated eleven.

Final score was: Las Lomas 18, Diablo 14.

The game, played at Concord, found the alert Knights capitalizing on breaks and wasting little time in turning them into scores.

The two clubs battled to a scoreless first quarter, with Diablo doing most of the groundgaining.

EARLY IN the second period of play, a Knight guard, John France, intercepted a Diablo pass, and it was the Knights' ball on their own 40.

At this point they caught fire, going the 60 yards to the goal line to score, highlighted by a 26-yard pass from Quarterback Jim Symington to End Bob Karlsrud, with Fullback Duane Brown sweeping left end from eight yards out for the tally.

The Knights kicked off and recovered a fumble on the Devils' 25 yard line on the first play from scrimmage, with Guard Skip Andreggen doing the recovering.

BREAK NUMBER 3 came when Diablo was penalized 15 yards, putting the ball on the 10, and Symington hit End Joe Silva in the end zone for the TD.

The conversion try had failed on the first TD and it misfired again, leaving the score at 12-0.

The Diablo club came back fighting and drove to the Las Lomas 8, only to have the clock run out.

IN THE THIRD quarter, Diablo took the ball and went 71 yards in 12 plays, with Halfback Harold Hayworth scoring from the 16, going over right tackle.

Halfback Cliff Mores hit the same spot for the extra point, making the count 12-7.

Diablo then kicked off and held the Knights, forcing them to punt, and appeared on their way when they drove to the Las Lomas 2.

Diablo's hopes were dashed, however, when Mores fumbled and Don Ogden picked it up and raced to the Diablo 21.

THREE PLAYS later, Ogden scored, and when Brown's conversion kick was blocked it was Las Lomas 18, Diablo 7.

On the next kickoff the fans were brought to their feet again when Diablo's speedburner, Hayworth, rambled 92 yards to score and Mores ran the ball over guard for the conversion point, cutting the Knights' lead to 18-14.

Dons Meet Rams In Crucial Tiff At Diablo Field

The Acalanes Dons and the Pleasant Hill Rams meet up on the Diablo gridiron over Concord way tonight, starting at 8 o'clock sharp.

The Rams, under Coach Hal Briggs, have had a rough go of it all season and have as yet to taste victory, although they have come mighty close on several occasions.

In Fullback Jim McMillin the Rams have a light but powerful runner who has been the mainstay of the Ram attack all season long and who probably can post as good a per-try yardage record as any back in the league.

THE DONS HAVE scored but two wins to date, downing Tracy 26-13 and racking the Diablo Devils 13-7 in one of the season's big upsets.

The Acalanes eleven has shown great potential in every game they have played but, outside of the Diablo game, they haven't really put one together all the way.

Last week against Antioch they looked great the first half, only to go into a reversal of form the second half and drop what looked to be a win.

The Dons will be minus the services of Gary Arel, their starting left half, who is out with an ankle sprain, while the Rams have lost the services of their center, Chuck Exner, sidelined with a sprained back.

THE RAMS did receive a shot in the arm last week when McMillin returned to the lineup after being benched in the second half of the Las Lomas game with a wrenched ankle.

Comparative scores give the Dons a slight edge but it's close enough to be rated a tossup.

The Dons tripped Diablo 13-7 by playing their season's best, while the Rams lost 34-7 minus the services of McMillin.

In the Antioch game the Rams held the upper hand until the closing minutes, going down 19-12, while the Dons lost 13-7 after leading 7-0 at the half.

THE LAS LOMAS game found the Pleasant Hill team out in front 6-0 in the opening quarter and dominating most of the first half, only to go down 30-12.

Alden Robertson takes over as a starter for Arel in the Dons' left half spot, due to his work in early week practice sessions.

The game will mark the season's finale for the Rams, while the Dons wind up the season next week when they tackle Pittsburg in a postponed game.

Dr. Wilcox Will Speak On Mentally Retarded

The Contra Costa County Association for Mentally Retarded will hold its monthly meeting tonight at 8 p.m. in the Orinda Community Church. Dr. W. E. Wilcox, guest speaker will speak on the mentally retarded in the home. All interested persons are cordially invited.

The public is cordially invited.

Panthers Edge Don Grid Team By 13-7 Count

The Acalanes Dons were off to a whale of a start last Friday night when they drove the Antioch Panthers back on their haunches throughout the first half and left the field with what appeared to be a comfortable 7-0 margin.

The Dons came near scoring on two other occasions but fell short, and it proved fatal, as Antioch dominated the second half of play, holding the Dons scoreless and posting 13 points of their own, to chalk up the win, 13-7.

IN THE FIRST quarter the Dons drove deep into Antioch territory after holding Antioch for downs and forcing them to kick on fourth down.

In the opening minute of the second quarter, the Dons' speedy right half, Mike Barrett, took a pitch out from Quarterback Richard Markstein and, on a brilliant run to the left scored from 15 yards out.

Fullback Stuart Busby lofted the ball through the uprights to add point seven on the conversion try.

The rest of the quarter found the Dons deep in Panther territory as Barrett, Busby and Gary Arel, along with Butch DeVillers, rolled up yardage over the middle, off tackle and around end.

THE DONS CAME close but failed to score, and they left the field at the halfway mark leading 7-0.

The Dons came back for the second half contented in their own minds that the game was in the bag, but they were soon rudely awakened as the Antioch club dominated play, with the exception of a last-quarter splurge by the Dons, which was cut short by a Don fumble.

Antioch got on the scoreboard in the third quarter when Quarterback Bob Edwards sneaked over from the 2-yard line after a 60-yard drive, mostly through the middle of the Don line.

The conversion kick was blocked and that made it 7-6 in favor of the Dons, going into the fourth quarter.

LATE IN THE fourth quarter Antioch drove to the Dons' five, where the Acalanes line stiffened and held for three downs, only to have Edwards toss a pass to Bill Hall, who flared out fast to the left and then crossed the goal line standing up for what proved to be the winning score.

Quarterback Randy Autentico passed to end Len Bowen for the conversion point, making the count 13-7 in favor of Antioch.

The Dons took the ensuing kickoff and came back with a vengeance as they started on their own 25 and went deep in Antioch territory before losing the ball on a fumble.

Will Prep Grid Season End With Final Status Unclear?

By ERWIN MATTSON

FOOTBALL RUNS to an end tonight as far as the official 1955 Diablo Valley prep season is concerned.

There is an outside chance that the Acalanes-Pittsburg game will be played, but that chance is definitely an outside one.

No one has come forward and admitted being involved in the recent vandalism at Acalanes Field—the burning of the letter "P" on the turf—and it's a long shot that anyone will. On the basis of expressed opinions, unless the matter is cleared by the parties involved the game will not be played.

The final standings could be confused as a result. If Las Lomas defeats Pittsburg tonight, Las Lomas will stand atop the heap as the league's only undefeated club.

If Pitt wins, however, the issue will be clouded. Las Lomas will have one defeat and Pitt a tie, but Las Lomas will have played Acalanes while Pitt will not have done so.

Guess it's up to the Las Lomas Knights to win and clear the issue.

Next year will find a number of new practice football games on tap. Las Lomas takes on San Ramon in the season's opener. Acalanes plays Alhambra in the opener and Oakland High in the second practice game. Peidmont had to drop out, due to a shift in their league sideline.

THE SAN RAMON-Las Lomas game will in all probability be played at Danville, inasmuch as they expect to have lights by then. A good amount of money has been raised toward the project, with more expected to be pledged in time to get the lights in.

Negotiations are under way to get the lights at the Oaks ball park, which means that the layout would be a first-class one.

San Ramon High has been fortunate in having motion pictures taken of all games and as a result has collected quite a film library.

It costs $50 to take each game, and, fortunately for San Ramon, the expenses are borne by an interested individual. The games are "shot" on Friday and are back, developed and ready to show, on Sunday.

They have proved to be an invaluable coaching aid not only in correcting mistakes, but also in emphasizing good play—and too, theyre a valuable means of scouting other teams.

In connection with football, one of the better records in the local area, if not the best, is that of the Stanley School, Lafayette, the upper-grade grammar school which boasts not only an unbeaten record but an unscored upon one as well.

The Stanley School club, under Coach Ted Collins, has proven to be an ardent one and figures to give the Acalanes Dons a strong frosh team next fall.

BASKETBALL swings into action a week from next Monday. League rules prohibit practice until a week's layoff after the conclusion of the pigskin season.

You can bet that playground areas will be filled with basketball candidates for that week.

HAPPY? Of course she is! Mrs. William J. Gleason of 14 Dias Dorados, Orinda, won the Tilden Flight trophy October 19 at the golf tournament at Tilden Park — and at the same time broke 100 with a score of 96, her best score to date. Christian Science

Man's true nature as a child of God will be set forth at services this Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda.

The Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Adam and Fallen Man" will include the account of Christ Jesus' healing of the man "which had a spirit of an unclean devil" as recorded in Luke (4).

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is the following (259:6): "The divine nature was best expressed in Christ Jesus, who threw upon mortals the truer reflection of God and lifted their lives higher than their poor thought-models would allow—thoughts which presented man as fallen, sick, sinning, and dying."

The Golden Text is from Ephesians (5:8): "Ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light."

National Agenda Is Women Voters' Topic Wednesday

The League of Women Voters of this area will hold a general meeting next Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Hillcrest Congregational Church, 404 Gregory Lane, Pleasant Hill.

Purpose is to consider proposals for the national current agenda.

Each member will have an opportunity to suggest, discuss, criticize and select proposals for study and work on the national level for the coming two years.

Mrs. John Selley of Walnut Creek is chairman of a county survey which is being sponsored jointly by the local league and the league of Richmond.

She said thatl her group wil present the general historical background and the administrative system in Contra Costa County, November 29 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Andrew Kridl, 161 Harriet, Pleasant Hill; November 30 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ardy Arman, 3818 Juniper Drive, Dana Estates, Concord, and December 1 at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Condrotte, 800 Holly Hill Drive, Walnut Creek.

Diablo Vista PTA To Talk Safety

The Diablo Vista Parent Teachers Association will discuss safety measures for the walkways from unit 6 of Gregory Gardens to Gregory Lane, in a meeting at the school Monday night.

Starting at 8, it will be attended by representatives of the county, Pleasant Hill Recreation District, and Mt. Diablo School District.

Poplar Members Party Tomorrow

Poplar Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay, including members from Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Berkeley, Piedmont and Oakland, will have a cocktail party for members and their guests tomorrow at 6 p.m. at the Piedmont home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Dimmler.

Attending with their guests from Orinda will be Poplar branch chairman Mrs. John J. Reilly Jr., with her husband, and the Messrs. and Mesdames J. Gordon Ainsworth, Valentine Brookes, Frank Brush, Talbot Evans, Rollin Moore and Robert M. Moorehead.

From Lafayette will be the Messrs. and Mesdames John Athanson, Robert Foley, Duncan Knudsen, Jack Noble and Robert J. Pedder.

From Walnut Creek with their guests will be Poplar members and husbands, the Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Clough, William McGuire and Carl Vendt.

Excitement High at Kaiser Hospital --- Triplets Arrive

By NORM COLBY

The Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek passed a milestone Saturday morning, with the birth of triplets to Mrs. Gene (Nancy) Englund, 29, of Oakland, a teacher at the Montecito School in Lafayette.

It was a big event for both parties and an exuberant air was evident in the maternity ward Tuesday, as the smiling wife of a San Francisco accountant with her brand-new girls and one boy, said goodbye to administrators, and started home.

FOR THE HOSPITAL, established here in 1953, the triplets are the first such in 3165 births, though there have been several twins. Delivering physician was Dr. L. J. Frank Jr.

The event came in a busy month for maternity nurses and obstetricians, who in October brought 142 new babies into the world, setting a new all-time record for a single month at Kaiser.

Mrs. Englund, a vivacious brunette who has another son, Robert, born at the hospital a little more than a year ago, is happy about being one in 8000 mothers, and also the special interest shown her by doctors and public press.

CONTRARY TO EARLY reports, she and her husband agreed on two names each for a boy and a girl just before he left on a business trip to Bristol, Pa., September 22, from which he'll return in about two weeks.

Number one was a girl—Kirsten, weighing 6 pounds, 10 ounces. Time: 8:24 a.m.

Number two, another girl—Vivian, 5 pounds, 2 ounces. Time: 8:26.

Number three, and a surprise to mother and attending physician, was a boy—Mark Judson, 6 pounds, 4 ounces. Time: 8:35.

After fulfilling necessary duties, Dr. Frank immediately inspected seven-month X-rays, which he had surmised indicated twins.

Yes—twins were still indicated, but obviously the third was hidden in the shadow of another.

THERE WAS NO OTHER clue, since no history of multiple births exists in either parent's family.

Mrs. Englund, like all new mothers, wanted her husband, and doctors immediately arranged a long distance call to Bristol.

The father-of-four was so surprised at the news that he called again that evening for a "recount," and again to express his happiness and wish for her well-being until his return. It was decided that he will finish up his business before returning, rather than make an emergency flight home.

Their home, incidentally, is a five bedroom structure at 6460 Hillegass Avenue, Oakland.

ONLY RECENTLY THEY purchased it, moving from a smaller home in Oakland.

"At the time, we couldn't explain just why we wanted so many bedrooms, but now we know," is Mrs. Englund's happy comment.

Roommate and companion during her period in the hospital was Mrs. Charles Terry of Hayward, who gave birth to a son, David Paul.

Mrs. England will have plenty of help at home. Her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary England of Idaho Falls, Ida., will care for her.

AT THE HOSPITAL Tuesday were her mother, Mrs. Clara Dann of Oakland, and a sister, Mrs. Gerard Bristow of Oakland, who has three children, all one-at-a-time.

Mrs. Englund is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley, as was her accountant husband, but they met while she was a farm bureau secretary, and he a certified public accountant working in Oakland.

It was a four-year courtship before their marriage in December, 1951.

C.C. Park Council Picks Mrs. Burton For Leadership

Mrs. Alvin Burton of Walnut Creek was elected president of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council in an annual dinner in Martinez recently.

Other area officers include Mrs. Edward Clay of Walnut Creek, vice president; Mrs. Andrew Kirk, corresponding secretary; Edward Koskinen of Walnut Creek, treasurer; and members of the board of directors Richard Nesbitt, Mrs. Burton, King Crosno, Mrs. Frank Clune, Harold Weatherbe and John Nejedly of Walnut Creek; William Wight and Irving Dundas of Pleasant Hill, Curtis Newcombe and Mrs. Richard Newhouse of Lafayette and Louis Ambler of Orinda.

New Mart Building Committee Named

A building committee has been created by directors of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board. Its purpose is to screen properties offered in the area and recommend to the group.

Members are Bill Hayward, Barney Gilbert and Al Ingalls, chairman.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED at the breakfast meeting held recently that sales volume on the Mart in October totaled $1,058,787, with 70 firm sales, including 39 cooperative.

This exceeds by far the $898,335 total for the same month last year, when there were 64 sales with 36 cooperatives.

The breakfast meeting Monday at the El Nido will have a program on "Correct Telephone Usage" presented by a representative of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

A general membership meeting will be held November 14, President Ben Hamlin announced.

FRANK CURTIS recommended and the directors purchased decals for broker offices, to be put in doors and windows with the designation, "Member, Contra Costa Real Estate Board."

It was reported recently that the Revenue Service ruled that income received by an individual from the rental of space in an office building he owns is considered rental from real estate and is to be included in computing net earnings from self-employment for purposes of the Self-Employment Contributions Act of 1954.

Directors Elect Cummings Head Of Commuters

George R. Cummings, 4049 Marianne Drive, was elected president of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association at a special meeting of the Board of Directors held recently.

Other officers elected at the meeting include: Vice-president, Douglas Buffington, Lafayette; secretary, Dauglas P. Rathke, Alamo; treasurer, Hugh Morison, Walnut Creek, was was re-elected.

After the election of officers, the directors drew up preliminary plans for the organization's annual membership drive for 1956. Tentative plans call for the drive to begin this month.

Youth Building to Benefit From Sale of Decorations

A Christmas sale of gifts and decorations to help construct the Youth Building in the Lafayette Community Center will be held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Phillips, 831 Las Trampas Road.

Door donation will be 50 cents, and items on sale will range from 10 cents to $20, according to Mrs. Phillips. Tea and refreshments will be served.

Neighbors have been working for months on a great variety of gifts, including Christmas tree ornaments and fancy leaves and sprays.

On display will be many do-it-yourself items which Mrs. Phillips says can be made with little effort.

She and some of her helpers have traveled as far as Sonora Pass to collect pine cones and manzanita.

Some of their creations are on sale at Podesta Baldocchi Florists in San Francisco.

Among those who assisted Mrs. Phillips in preparing for the sale are the Mesdames Julius Kerns, J. D. Gaeta, Floyd Hoffman, Ronald Smith, Edward Conner, Leo Coleman Jr. and Leo Coleman Sr.

YOUR HOMETOWWN merchant guarantees everything he sells. Remember, it costs several dollars for tires, gas and oil when you go through the tunnel to shop.

Higher School Tax Limits Previewed

Analysis of a prospective tax rate limit increase in the Acalanes High School area is being prepared by the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association, it was announced this week.

In conjunction with similiar statistics on raises in Alamo, Vine Hill Danville, Pittsburg, San Pablo and other areas, the report will be in a newsletter form.

The Acalanes raise would be to support a new bond issue of $3,250,000, if the bonds are approved in an election November 22. A second election would be necessary to approve the higher tax level.

The report covers a total of $15 million in school construction throughout the county and also school bonds and state loans.

Statistics, but no recommendations, will be submitted, according to Association President Bruce Howard.

Valley Art Center to Meet In Wright Home Nov. 12

The annual membership meeting of the Valley Art Center will be an evening of entertainment in a Las Vegas atmosphere at the home of the Cedric Wrights, 3974 Canyon Road, Lafayette, Saturday, November 12, at 6:30 p.m.

Reservations for the event will be $1 which includes dinner and may be secured by calling Mrs. Rawlings Simon at the Valley Art Center, AT 3-3920 or CL 4-2720.

MEMBERS have been invited to appear in costumes of sirens, croupiers, cowboys, miners and Western characters.

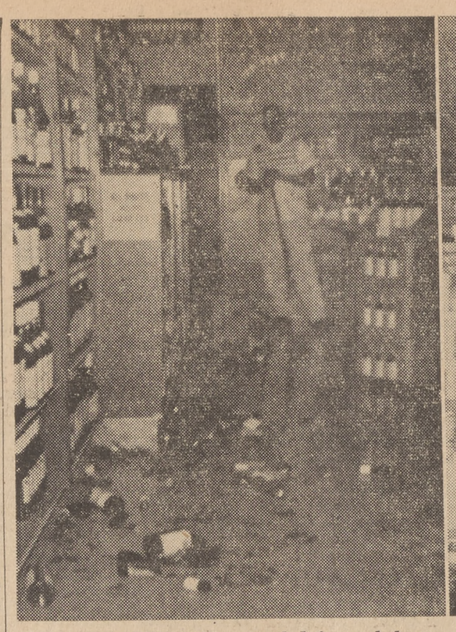
The party coincides with the completion of Cedric Wright's photo studio located below the house in a setting of oaks. The star shaped glass enclosed building, designed by Roger Lee, has two stories including a photo lab on the upper deck and a gallery on the lower floor. Both floors will be open to the guests.

Committees in charge of arrangements include: Mrs. E. M. Jacobsen and Mrs. Donald Holmes, Lafayette, Mrs. Arthur Sassone, Orinda, and Mrs. Stanley Kwiat, Walnut Creek, dinner; Mrs. Howard Stafford, Mrs. Richard Ward, Mrs. Ernest Hoversten, Lafayette, and Mrs. Frank Cashin, Walnut Creek, invitations; Forrest Engelhart, Clayton, Edmund Barnett, Lafayette, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Van Guenthner, Walnut Creek, refreshments; Mrs. J. Gordon Ainsworth, James Wood, Orinda, Charles Preston Hunt, Berkeley, Irving Roemer, Lafayette, entertainment.

MRS. IRVING ROEMER, Lafayette, decorations; Mrs. DeWitt Kreuger, Mrs. John Enright, Mrs. Pat Moran, Walnut Creek, Rawlings Simon, Lafayette, and Mrs. Raymond Fischer, Danville, door prizes; Mrs. Marion Irvin, road signs; Bill Powell, Lafayette, parking, and Mrs. Rawlings Simon, reservations.

Mrs. Simon, president, announced the appointment of a nominating committee for election of a new board which will take place during the evening. Included are Mrs. Harold Powell and Mrs. John Ellis, Lafayette, and Mrs. J. Gordon Ainsworth, Orinda.

Currently featured at the Valley Art Center are oil paintings by Robert Sterling and Roger Bolomey and Christmas wares produced by local artists and craftsmen. Also on sale are Christmas cards in silk screen.



THREE DOZEN bottles toppled from shelves at the Village Liquor Store, 3541 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, during the earthquake of October 23. Eddie Roberts looks over their remains prior to sweeping up.

"MORE OF a mess than an expense," was the way Harold Levy summed up damage to his Super Saver Market on Mt. Diablo Boulevard as a result of the giant temblor.

Classified Ads Bring Christmas Cash

With Christmas and its joy of giving soon to be anticipated by every adult and child, NOW is the time to make some extra money, and at the same time, clear away unwanted items from the house.

THOSE ITEMS WHICH were once so desired by you will be as ardently sought after by people who read the classified columns of The Suns in Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda and The Sun Shopping News — which means about everyone.

They are thinking about Christmas too. They will need children's toys, trains, bikes and many useful items which you probably have stuffed away somewhere in the attic or basement.

And the money they would otherwise have spent elsewhere will go into your own Christmas savings account.

NOW IS THE TIME to advertise, before the rush begins, and before the purchases have already been made for that most important day of the year.

Classified deadline each week is 10 a.m., Tuesday. Your call will be received with consideration—for your needs, and those of the reader.

Sell what you don't need. Sun classified ads get fast results.

HS Board OKs Bids for Truck, Swim Pool Work

Acalanes High School District trustees at their meeting last week accepted two bids—one for $1955 for a pickup truck with a dump body from Rett-White Motor Company, Walnut Creek; the other a bid from Paddock Pools to recondition the Acalanes High School pool for $3998.

This is the first major reconditioning job done on the Acalanes pool since it was built.

Trustees also approved a final report received from the Contra Costa Flood Control District which recommends extension of a drainage ditch which will divert more water away from the Ivy Drive area at the Miramonte High School, Orinda, site.

Mrs. Alice McBride, trustee from Walnut Creek, reported on her attendance at the State School Board Association meeting at Coronado. She said the Acalanes District is in a "favorable position in comparison with other school districts in the matter of educational program and administrative organization and procedure."

District Superintendent Neil M. Parsons reported his observations at a recent State School Administrators convention, stating that there was considerable "convention discussion of the possible changes in school policy and administration, shifting it more to local control and less to the state."

MOMS MEET

The den mothers of Pack 238 met at the home of Marian Waldman last week. Those present to exchange ideas for crafts and den meetings were Ruth Bar, Ellie Soder, Ethel Burnett, Nancy Follmer, Dorothea Schneider, Elizabeth Johnston and Arlina Hendricks.

Deke and Comfort Scott of Los Palos Drive and their friends Ed and Janice Pike, motored to Carmel last Friday for a three-day weekend.

Audrey and Dick Darmsted and daughter Barbara of Glenside Drive went down to San Luis Obispo, Carmel and Capitola over the weekend on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Mommy and Daddy, don't forget tomorrow night. That's the night of the Burton Kick-Off at Holy Ghost Hall, Saranap. Got your ticket yet? If not, get them at the door.

YONG ACTORS

Last Friday, Kim Mangini celebrated her third birthday with a luncheon. After a lunch of sandwiches, cake and ice cream, Kim's guests listened to participation records, and acted them out. Guests were Ginny Nimmo, Brian Hufft, Lynne Crouse, Marshall Young, Doug Rogers and Kim's cousin, Alvie Mangini.

Eleanor and Herm Silverman spent a couple of days at Carmel last week, and enjoyed the beautiful weather.

Sophie Rogers of Glenside Drive attended a very swank fashion show last week with a friend from Orinda at the Brazilian Room.

Last Friday night the Presbyterian Church had a Victory dinner for the building and church fund campaign at the First Presbyterian Church in Berkeley. Glensiders attending were Sue and Stan Hill, Marge and Harry Sommer and Marian and Al Metzler.

ENVIOUS EYES

Kay and Charlie Knight are the envy of their neighbors with their beautiful new room added recently.

Sue and Stan Hill of Glenside Drive had as guests last weekend Sue's sister and a girl friend from Sacramento.

Last Friday night, Penny, Kathy and Shari Dyer entertained 15 of their friends at a super Halloween party. All the children were in costumes, and the high spot of the party was a spook trail that consisted of wet macaroni, ghosts, noise traps, hanging spiders, a phosphoresent skull and many other things.

Games included ducking for apples, eating marshmallows hung on string from the ceiling, pinning a hat on a pumpkin and a relay race of sweeping balloons from one end of a room to another. For refreshments they enjoyed cider and hob-goblin doughnuts.

Nancy Waldman and Carol Sue English from Stanley School painted Halloween pictures on store windows.

STANLEY DANCE

Stanley School had its Halloween costume dance last Friday night. Those attending from Glenside were Kay Benioff, Nancy Noack, Nancy Nimmo, Nancy Waldman, Carol Sue English, Linda Anderson, Nancy Lodder, Katy Altmann, Lois Martin, Linda Parshall, Barbara Darmsted, John Sommer, Jeff Lamphere and Jim Neaumann. Mabel Wilson was chairman.

Last Friday night Georgia and David Harvell along with daughter Diana and Mary Newey went to Berkeley for dinner, and then to see the special performance of Rumpelstiltskin at the Berkeley Community Theater.

Boy Scout Troop 204 had its Halloween dance last Saturday night the Scout Hut. Members bobbed for apples, ate apples from strings and played other games. They danced to the music of an orchestra from Orinda.

Glenside boys and girls who attended were Carol Lee Roberts, Tommy Woodnut, Ralph Wilson, Harvey Rogers, Susie Nowland, John Sommer, Carol Sue English, Paul Hein, Kay Benioff, Bob Newel, Tom Williams, Bill Shurtleff, Jeff Shurtleff and Larry Hollister.

RIDING HAY

The Catholic teen-age group went on a hayride to Big Bear Ranch on Saturday night. There were 39 present. Kay and Lou Fekete are sponsors of the group, and went along. They had a weinie roast at the ranch. Later they ended up at the Feketes for dancing and more refreshments. Glensideers who are members of the group are Dick Neuman, Diane Fekete, Paul Stagnaro and Anna Oldano.

Kay and Lou Fekete entertained Chang Shao-Chow from Taiwan, China, on Friday evening. He is the deputy director of Keelung Harbor Bureau. They took him out to dinner, and since he had never seen an American football game, they took him to see the Acalanes game. His opinion was that American football is too rough. They then drove him back to his hotel in San Frncisco.

A Christms sale of gifts and decorations will be held Wednesday from 1 to 5 and 7:30 to 10:30 at the Charles Phillips home at 831 Las Trampas Road. The sale will include Thanksgiving and Christmas decorations, do it yourself items, things for children to do and many other things. Tea and refreshments will be served and the admission price is 50 cents.

The proceeds from this benefit will go to the Community Center Fund. Neighbors have been meeting once a week to work on this benefit, and they hope that many Glensiders will be able to attend.

Roadside Council State Board Adds Mrs. M. Farrar

Mrs. Mitchell Farrar of Orinda, chairman of the Contra Costa County Women's Planning Council has been elected to the state Board of Directors of the California Roadside Council.

The Roadside Council was organized in 1929 to "promote the improvement of roadside conditions along California highways, that the beauty of the state be preserved and developed for the welfare and enjoyment of the people."

Mrs. Farrar took office recently when the state board of CRC met at the Union League and Press Club in San Francisco.

The philosophy of the Californio Roadside Council, as Mrs. Farrar sees it, is not to legislate beauty in place of billboards, but to lead public opinion at the local community level into wanting and promoting more intelligent zoning, better landscaping, more numerous and convenient roadside rests and more discrimination in the use of billboards.

ORCHARD NURSERY

is Moving Back From Down the Road

(about 100 yards)

Now we know how it feels to be strapped to the railroad track with the streamliner whistling 'round the bend. The highway is edging closer all the time. So in two weeks we are going to move our present building, add two other structures from the Lazy K Ranch, and push the whole kit and kaboodle about 100 yards back. Enter from the Acalanes Road. We'll still be within hog-calling distance from where we are now.

But moving nursery stock even 100 yards is a job! Therefore we are offering considerable bargains on some timely plantings to any and all who are adventurous enough to seek us out. Happy Bargain Hunting!

Six-Lane Freeway Planning Needed!

One is hardly able to travel anywhere in Central Contra Costa County these days without seeing major road or highway construction in progress.

Most of this represents millions of dollars in freeway construction funds. More millions of dollars will be transformed into visible freeway construction in the near future.

That is the continuing story for Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill—almost everywhere throughout our area.

This is something for which we all hoped and worked in past years. Our "dream" of yesteryear is really coming true.

Yet a factor exists which gives pause to our jubilation. When we drive along freeways in neighboring areas, we see that almost as soon as new freeways are completed, they are outmoded.

The bitter irony of that situation has made many a Central Contra Costa County commuter ask: Why?

We think the answer, at least partially, is that many freeways (including those in our area) are being built mainly for immediate four-lane development. True, the sections near interchanges are six-lane, and provision is made for possible later widening of the main stretches to six lanes. However, four lanes are what, in the main, are provided for major stretches for an indefinite period of time immediately following completion of a freeway.

The result is that bottlenecks are aggravated rather than alleviated.

We realize that scheduling of four-lane freeways, with widening to six lanes put off for some indefinite time in the future, occurs mainly because of lack of state funds with which to do otherwise. Obviously, the California Highway Commission must plan and work with what money is available.

Still, everyone concerned—engineers and laymen alike—see clearly that, if it were at all possible, the freeways should be built six-lane in the first place, instead of four-lane. Not only would that help take care of the traffic; it would be much cheaper.

A case in point is the Eastshore Freeway. Most of the Eastshore Freeway, from Oakland to the Hayward area, is four-lane. So inadequate is it that for the past several years it has been generally considered outmoded.

Recently the Highway Commission allocated $2,050,000 for widening of a sizeable portion of the Eastshore Freeway to six lanes.

How much simpler, more convenient and more economical it would have been if the freeway had been six lanes in the first place!

This is a problem which affects our area at least as strongly as it does any other area in the state. It would be to the advantage of Central Contra Costans, the highway authorities and the state as a whole for action to be taken which would make six-lane freeway planning the rule rather than the exception.

Perhaps the entire concept of highway budgeting should be revised along these lines. Certainly, the matter is one to which the most serious attention should be given.

What They Say

Sawed Signs— More Profits?

The Broadway Tunnel has proved itself both an efficient short-cut through the hills and a boon to dealers and manufacturers of automobile batteries. We often wonder why those "LIGHTS" signs to the sides of the outcoming lanes don't keep mysteriously disappearing. The battreymen would get even richer.

Of course, the trouble doesn't start until the unsuspecting motorist switches off the motor at his destination without dousing those juice-consuming lights. And it's done every day.

OUR RESEARCHERS decided to pick up a few comments on the situation, so they asked this question of a group of people:

"When you drive through the Broadway Tunnel during daylight, do you usually remember to turn off your car lights when you emerge?"

"I have forgotten that matter on occasion," said Mrs. Stanley B. Williams, 3340 Rowland Drive, Lafayette. "Once I left the car in a parking lot all day with the lights on; the battery was dead when I went to drive it away. That was before the signs were put up, and I think they have helped."

MRS. ERNEST HUNTER, 6 Northwood Court, Orinda, said, "I don't have any trouble. I make it a practice to turn off my lights just before I get out of the tunnel. People don't drive with their mind on their driving is my explanation for so many lights being left on."

"Yes, because there's always a sign," was the reply of Mrs. William Shelly, 3514 Moraga Boulevard, Lafayette.

Mrs. Joseph L. Rogers, 122 Canon Drive, Orinda, also never leaves her light son. She doesn't drive. She said she watches out for her husbund's forgetting, and seldom does he ever neglect to turn them off.

AN UNBLEMISHED record is claimed by Mrs. R. L. Hamlin of 342 Valley View Drive, Pleasant Hill, who admits, however, that her travels through the tunnel are infrequent.

"I am conscious of everything I do while driving, and don't pay attention to the radio, or conversation of passengers," she said in accounting for the feat.

"Commuters should always remember to turn their lights off, for it should be a habit with them," said Mrs. Arlie Couch of 186 Arlene Drive, Walnut Creek. She, however, forgot once.

That moment of forgetfulness is a "pretty good lesson" according to B. D. Tonner, a resident officer in charge of contract construction for the Navy in San Francisco.

HE DIDN'T GET "blinked at" by other cars, drove to his office, and not until that evening did he learn his error. The battery was dead. "But it wasn't in very good shape, anyway," he philosophizes.

Louis Ansana, a manufacturing company executive in Richmond, who until recently commuted to his home at 1860 Shuey Avenue, Walnut Creek, has a nine-year record of only about a half dozen "flubs."

"It's simple enough—you remember because if you don't, goodbye battery," is his explanation.

Two Local People Named to Staff Of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center

Announcement was made this week of two new appointments to the staff of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center by Samuel Bradbard, chairman of the Center's personnel committee. Both appointments are newly created posts.

Mrs. Irene Macdonald, 206 Overhill Road, Orinda, has been employed as the Center's first social worker. She comes to the Center well qualified to initiate this new phase of the organization's rehabilitation program.

MRS. MACDONALD graduated with honors in economics from the University of California, Berkeley. Post-graduate work included completion of requirements for a general secondary teaching credential at the University of California, Berkeley, and a two year program in child welfare at the School of Social Welfare at that university.

Her wide experience in the social welfare field includes employment as a social worker in the Humboldt County Department of Public Welfare, for the Pinehaven home for emotionally disturbed children in San Francisco, and the American Red Cross in San Francisco.

She has also been associated with the Juvenile Court in Washington, D.C. as a probation officer.

Mrs. Macdonald has lived in Orinda for the past five years with her husband, Clyde, and three sons, Clyde, Scott and Kent.

E. WALTON KIRK of Walnut Creek has begun duties as the Center's first psychologist. Upon request of prescribing physicians, he will be available for psychological evaluation and treatment, if necessary. Kirk has a fine background in the psychology field, having been graduated as a psychology major from the University of Washington and later, receiving his M.A. degree from the University of California, Berkeley.

The new psychologist served as clinical psychologist for six years at the Alameda County Guidance Clinic, as consultant for a research program in delinquency at the University of California, and has been a member of the faculty of the University of California's Extension Division.

Other experience includes service on the California State Personnel Appraisal Board, and consultant to a local television station on which he also appeared in a series of programs on the emotional and psychological problems of adolescents.

HE IS CONSULTANT as clinical psychologist at Children's Hospital, Cerebral Palsy Department in San Francisco, as well as having private offices in Walnut Creek.

Kirk is a member of the Board of Directors of the Northern California Mental Health Society, and a member of the American Psychological Association, California State Psychological Association, American Association of Mental Deficiency, National Rehabilitation Association and American Group Psychotherapy Association.

Kirk has been a resident of Walnut Creek for the past six years where he lives with his wife and two children, Jeffrey and Kendy.

Letters to The Editor

The Sun claims no responsibility for the opinions expressed in this Letter to The Editor column. The editor reserves the right to edit or reject any letter. The letters must be signed to allow verification, but names will be withheld upon request.

Dear Editor:

In a letter to The Sun recently we attempted to clarify the question of "industry in the suburbs." The subject is complex. It has been muddled through generalizations and "the sins of omission." Our comments, to be useful, had to be lengthy. Unfortunately, you were forced to abridge our letter due to space limitations.

It is apparent that the subject is still clouded. An unsigned letter to the editor recently quoted Max Wehrly in the Post. As usual, the writer jumped to the conclusion that what Mr. Wehrly had to say about our vast sprawl of small lot, low value, tract house "suburbs" applied to the half-acre high value home communities as well.

IT IS THIS SORT of specious reasoning which prompted our lengthy study of the relationship between costs of government, tax income, and the various land uses.

We regret exceedingly that we do not have a media through which we can disseminate our findings but we are very grateful to the many city and county managers, finance officers, school superintendents, planners, and University professors who helped us to understand this complex problem.

LAST MONTH we pointed out that large-lot rural residential areas where home values are high CAN and DO provide ample income to finance necessary government costs. They are likely to enjoy a low tax rate. Property values seem to remain high longer than in residential areas which have turned their town centers into commercial hubs.

We noted that small-lot tract housing almost never pays its own way. This is logical. Lots of people concentrated in a small area will need more schools, police and fire protection, street mantenance, parks and recreation, etc. Tax income is too low to meet costs.

You deleted those sections of our letter which pointed out that industries also vary in their tax contribution. An indutsrial plant with lots of automation, for examlpe, may have a high capital investment per worker. Its taxes can well underwrite the costs of government services required by its employees even if they live in tract houses ($5000 assessment per worker does this in San Mateo County).

The recent California Assembly report on city and county planning points out that "population growth is directly related to economic expansion." Demands for more schools, roads, sewers, etc. snowball. The industries have insufficient assessed value behind each worker to underwrite the new costs of government they generate.

Residential communities that are currently solvent should look carefully at the arguments presented for commercialization if they are based on tax claims. What is good for San Leandro may be very bad for Orinda or Alamo, and vice versa.

That look in the eye is about D.A.

Snoopy, the office cat, jumped on the table next to my desk. "Oh, boss man, I see that look in your eye. I bet you're going to write a column and needle somebody. I can always tell."

Snoopy, old pest, you must be a mind reader. And I'll tell you who the object of my affection is. None other than this county's illustrious district attorney — Francis W. Collins.

"Oh, no," groaned Snoop. "You've been picking on that poor fellow for over eight years."

Well, old cat, a lot of people think our D.A. and the poor job he does haven't been given enough publicity — or is the word "notoriety"?

Collins last week asked the Board of Supervisors to appropriate $3000 to hire an undercover agent to investigate gambling conditions in Contra Costa County, particularly in the North Richmond area. A state law was cited allowing for such an agent, answerable only to the D.A. The supervisors granted the request.

When I read this story, I started laughing. Can you imagine Francis Collins asking for an agent to check on gambling? Funny — yes, but also ironic.

Gambling and vice were rampant

Collins has been district attorney for many years. During most of that time, gambling and vice were rampant in the county. Contra Costa County could "boast" of some really big gambling kings.

With headquarters and business in the county, Bones Remmer became one of the state's biggest gambling czars. The California State Crime Commission devoted pages of its reports to Remmer and his activities. Now Bones is facing prison on income tax evasion.

At no time during Remmer's regime do I recall any investigation or action by our district attorney's office. Collins could have secured additional agents to help him — as he did last week.

Now, let's talk about Pechart and Kessel, who for years ran the gambling and vice in the county. (Incidentally, their influence is still felt in the county.) At certain times they operated without any pretense. Other times, they would be a bit more discreet. There have been gambling houses, floating gambling games, slot machines, dice tables, claw and pin ball machines.

We've reported on this for years

(New readers may be interested to learn that for years The Sun has reported on this — before investigations were made by the Kefauver Senate Crime Committee and the State Crime Commission. The Sun was presented a "Distinguished Community Service" award among all California's daily and weekly papers for this expose.)

In 1950 Senator Kefauver declared, following a two-day session of the U.S. Crime Investigation Committee, "The Contra Costa County (gambling) operations appear to have been wide open. It is hard to understand why the local authorities have done nothing . . . (about) the biggest, boldest, most wide-open operation of its kind in Northern California."

Kefauver called Kessel "one of the most sinister characters" the committee had examined and added that "Pechart runs him a close race . . . Evil fellows like Kessel and Pechart should arouse the righteous indignation not only of the United States Government but also of local authorities and citizens where they operate."

Was the righteous indignation of D.A. Collins aroused? Did he ask for a special undercover agent to help him? The answer: no.

The senator brought Sheriff James Long and Collins into the picture as he said Kessel refused to answer questions about his "relations" with them.

They continued to operate

Even after the Kefauver and State Crime Commission investigations calmed down, Pechart and Kessel continued to operate in the county.

Their operations are public record, admitted by Pechart in public hearings in Nevada, where he tried to get a gambling license. Nevada refused.

It is a matter of public record that Collins considers Pechart a long-time friend. It is also public record that bookmaking charges against Kessel were dismissed upon Collins' recommendations. This followed several phone calls between Pechart and Collins. (Source: San Francisco Examiner, Oakland Tribune and The Sun, December, 1950; telephone records subpoanaed by the State Crime Commission, etc.)

During the time when Pechart and Kessel dominated Contra Costa, Collins never made a move to investigate them. But now he has the unadulterated nerve to ask for additional help to investigate gambling.

Yes, Snoopy, I could go on for hours. But I think you get the general idea.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor

It is interesting to see the California Republicans jockey about preparing to seek their party's Presidential nomination next year.

The crusaders may try to sell Dick Nixon but moderate Democrats would not switch votes to him as they did Ike in 1952.

There are some things in politics which just do not appeal to voters, whether Republican or Democrat, and that is "below the belt" tactics.

Nixon is, but not too evident at the moment, a smear artist of the first order! Excuses can't be made that he simply gave speeches in '52 and '54 which were written for him.

A man has to have integrity and the Vice President is lacking in this important trait.

Tricky Dick over extended himself.
